

Think of it as Rival Gangs

By Anna Von Reitz

You have two obvious choices, and both of them are bad. They differ only in degree and kind of evil. Both are deceitful, self-serving, greedy, arrogant, and clannish. Neither one can be trusted.

The only thing that they will reliably join forces on is keeping any other gangs off their shared turf.

Let me give you an example of it.

Ever wonder how it was that all the American Carrier Fleet was at sea when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor?

The Carrier Fleet belonged to the Municipal Government--- the US NAVY-- and the members of Congress were not willing to risk their investments just to bait the Japanese.

FDR had known about the planned attack for over a week, but he just sat there like a toad and waited and left the old battleships and destroyers of the Pacific Fleet at anchor. Bait in a trap- and springing that trap would mean that he and the guilty war-mongers backing the British Crown would be free to charge trillions of dollars worth of new ships and airplanes, rations and uniforms and everything else you can name against the credit of the American States and People.

It was a trap for us, every bit as much or even more, than it was a trap for the Japanese.

Day of Infamy, indeed.

If the sailors had been more politically savvy and aware of the fact that the US NAVY was not the same as the United States Navy, the sudden departure of the Carrier Fleet should have warned them-- with or without action by the traitorous FDR-- that something was up.

This is in fact typical "standard operating procedure" -- the British Territorial United States is used to get us into a war, and after the fact the Municipal United States comes in to defend its shared turf and to get a share of the plunder.

The one left to pay for it all in blood and money and credit just happens to be you and your family--- Third Parties who don't belong to either gang,

From the standpoint of both gangs, you are the "marks", the prey, the sheep to be shorn or slaughtered.

There are far, far many more of you than them, and if you would get busy and wake up and organize your own gang you could easily put all these crooks and bullies in their place--- but instead they indoctrinate you to "vote" in their private elections and to choose sides--- either Democrat or Republican.

This keeps you all nicely sidetracked and co-opted and looking to them for money and leadership when in fact all the money they have, they are extorting out of you!

If it weren't so diabolical, it would be funny. If you could all see through it as easily and surely as I do, this situation would be over in five minutes instead of dragging on for years.

In the current situation the Municipal Government has to vacate for 90 days---- they have to do this to complete their 2015 bankruptcy.

So they couldn't give Donald J. Trump money to build a wall as a new spending bill even if they wanted to. They are temporarily cut off from access to the printing presses and having their paws slapped by the bankers and priests of Molloch.

They, the members of Congress, who are supposed to be running the Municipal United States Government are blaming Trump for a government shut down that is in fact the result of their own malfeasance, mismanagement, and criminal fraud-- and making it look like it's all about the border and building a fence.

And, wonder of wonders, he is letting them put on this ridiculous sideshow and taking the blame for the shut down.

I agree with Cher. After all that they have squandered, what's five billion more? It's not even worth arguing over, certainly not worth shutting down the government--- but you see, it's not about building a wall.

It's certainly not a contest between who gets the benefit-- the steel mills or the high tech electronic and drone surveillance companies-- because they are both owned by the same perpetrators and controlled by the United States Army.

It's about covering up the Municipal bankruptcy and the fact that the Vermin have to shut down for ninety days and vacate D.C. just as they did in 2000. They ginned up the whole Gore vs. Bush Election Scandal and the Florida "Chads" controversy to cover that one.

Just watch and mark my words.

The "Congress" will hunker down and entrench itself and Trump won't be able to get anything funded. Not a single new spending bill will pass in either house. They will howl and scream about Trump and blame it all on him and make it look like it's him and his personality --that they are all fed up and just can't work with him, blah, blah, blah--- but in fact, he has nothing to do with their lack of spending and it is not his fault.

I will be extremely honest with all of you and with the bankers and the Pope -- I am the lawful Fiduciary sent here by The Kingdom of Heaven to take charge of this Mess, and I want it to end-- not just in the United States, but worldwide.

Two years ago I told all of them what to do and how to convert this entire system from a debt system to a credit system. It would take three days and would hurt nobody.

Instead of listening to me and doing what I told them to do two years ago, they have tried to go on with Business As Usual even after their wrong-doing is known and is fully exposed for all the Universe to see.

They think they know their business and they are going to just pull another "Fast One" and like a parasite, move to a new host--- China--- and play all their same old games using the Chinese as their Bully Boys.

But I have told you who I am and what Office I hold and whose authority I exercise in this matter, and the True God will not be mocked.

It's not going to be Business as Usual and it's not going to go the way they plan. They either do what I told them to do to convert the debt system to a credit system, or the time extended to them "for a time" will be at an end.

There is nothing that Mr. Trump and the Chinese Government can do --no, nor the bankers using these politicians like sock puppets, either. What has been declared to the people of the Earth since ancient times will be.

Either we have peace and plenty and an end to selfish oppression and manipulation--- or those causing the problem will be removed as if they never were.

They will cease to exist and their physical bodies will simply disappear from this time and space.

No carnage. No arguments. No politics. No scams. No "defense" contracts.

Just excruciatingly exact and instantaneous removal of the stubborn n'er-do-wells.

They will be removed and the rest of this world will be changed "in the twinkling of an eye".

Just stand back and watch and listen for what I speak to you is true.

The leaders of this manmade world have brought everyone to the brink of extinction rather than admit their folly and play a different game. It's not going to be allowed.

The True God, the God of Justice, has heard your prayers and seen your suffering at the hands of these Liars and Hypocrites. He has seen the damage and misery and disease they have caused, all the Innocent Blood they have spilled.

I have told them what they must do in order to be spared. I have faithfully pursued my mission and stood my watch-- and all they do is continue down the same old road, doing the same old evil things.

They talk among themselves. They heard my instruction and laughed and said to themselves-- we won't do that. It's too simple and we would not be in control anymore.

But trust me, the True God has declared the end of this system of things. His Word will not come back empty. His Fiduciary will not be denied.

They think that during the next Blood Moon they will sign agreements with Trump that will assure their victory, but before the ink of their intention dries upon the page, their ending is assured.

As in the days of Noah it surely is. As Yeshuah has said, the Great Abomination stands where it should not stand--- in New York Harbor. The final warnings have been issued to all of these arrogant, stiff-necked, and evil men.

Now comes their downfall and their wreck. Now comes the Day of the Lord and His Justice upon those who have perpetuated and enforced all this evil, all this needless death and suffering upon the Earth: hear it as I have said it--they shall be no more.

But for those who have suffered all of this and endured, for all those who have watched and waited, a Wonder has been prepared. All those who love him have his Law already written on their hearts and to them a new Kingdom and a new Earth is granted.

Come now, the Lowly and the Kindly, and the Meek. Come all you people who have suffered. Come, as to a great feast and a party and a happy time beyond your wildest dreams, as his Word is fulfilled to the final jot.

His voice is in my mouth.

This world and the Earth is in his hand.

And he will not be mocked.

All the Kings and Princes have been invited to the Wedding Feast, but they have not come. So, look, here is a place for you, who repent your sins. Let your joy drown all your sorrows!
