

Same Set Up, Different Day

By Anna Von Reitz

The IRS Headquarters was off-shore in Puerto Rico and that is where they cashiered all the bogus ESTATE trusts they created out of thin air and named after each of us in the form: JOHN MICHAEL DOE. Then, as these THINGS were domiciled in Puerto Rico--- a "United States Commonwealth" --- they were subject to the Spanish Law of the Inquisition.

That is what gave the IRS its awesome power to terrorize and harass and confiscate and bully and lie about people and get away with it. They weren't operating under any law that we are familiar with. They were operating under the foreign private ecclesiastical "law" of a corrupt Church operated as a storefront by criminals engaged in kidnapping, unlawful conversion, inland piracy, press-ganging, and other heinous crimes.

Our old "friends" -- the Dominicans, it turns out, not the Jesuits -- were hard at work, pretending that we had a contract with them based on FDR's First Inaugural Address, even though it is perfectly clear that he was speaking to the Municipal Citizens of the United States, and even though it is also perfectly clear that none of us were Municipal Citizens of the United States and took no notice of their crazy presumptions, because we weren't being addressed and owed no reply.

The operation in Puerto Rico was discovered and all the credit that could be hypothecated against our ESTATES had been siphoned off, so it was time for the parasites to move on ---- to an exactly similar situation in the Northern Mariana Islands----quote Wikipedia:

"They, the Mariana Islands, are composed of two administrative units: Guam, a US territory, and the Northern Mariana Islands which make up a Commonwealth of the United States."

See the set up? The Northern Marianas are another "Commonwealth of the United States" just like Puerto Rico. What do you want to bet that this "Commonwealth" is run under the old Spanish Law of the Inquisition, just like the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, but now, they are applying it to the PUBLIC TRANSMITTING UTILITIES operated "in our names" styled like this: JOHN M DOE.

The Roman Catholic Church set up the Apostolic Prefecture of Mariana Islands in 1902, then suppressed it in 1911 to create two suffragan Diocese under one Metropolitan Archbishop --- the Metropolitan Archdiocese of Agana

This particular Archdiocese of Agana is an ecclesiastical territory of the Catholic Church in the United States. And which "United States" is this? The Municipal United States, of course.

So, that neatly ties up the whole package with a bow and proves that the Roman Catholic Curia has not learned its lessons nor corrected its operations, has not repented its horrific sins, and is not operating in anything like Good Faith.

It has simply moved its HQ closer to China, its next intended victim.

So what possible answer is there to this circumstance?

We have a Church of Criminals operating out of island bases as pirates, plundering and pillaging the people of the Earth, and using undisclosed Spanish Law of the Inquisition to enforce judgments on everyone else-----and all in the name of Jesus.

The True God has smelled the stench of their "holocausts" offered to Baal. The True God has heard their councils and taken account of their motivations. Yes, he has measured them with a fine sieve and they will not escape the righteous judgment coming to them, both as a result of their deeds and as a result of their arrogance and failure to repent these past twenty years that they have been under direct Notice.

I came to them and gave them Notice. They cannot say that they didn't know. They cannot reply that they are sorry for their indiscretions and misdeeds---not while they continue to promote the same and worse. No portion of mercy can be poured out for them for their ignorance, because they have been told --- from the Pope to the Paupers, they have been told.

They have had twenty years to correct their operations and turn their faces around, but here they are, still proposing to operate their same old scheme at our expense, from the Islands of the Ladrones --- literally, the Islands of the Thieves.

Roman Catholics everywhere --- this is your Church. This is what it has come to. This is the misery it has inflicted on the whole world. This is what its leadership has sunk to. And they are doing this in your names and in the name of Jesus, while stealing the estates of babies and trading your Baptismal Certificates---the titles to your souls, or so they claim---as commodities.

This is your Church. Not mine. Not anyone else's. If you do not demand change, the Cardinals have already shown their hand, their complete and utter lack of conscience, their intention to carry on with these criminal activities and allow their minions and franchises to continue on business as usual.
