

Silly People

By Anna Von Reitz

Silly people still don't understand.

They think all this circumstance is about politics and religion and race and "culture wars" and even about what adult people do in the privacy of their own bedrooms.

It's not about any of that.

It's about crime. It's about fleecing and controlling us all. It's about keeping our house divided, so that Mankind cannot unite and overcome the demonic forces picking away at us day and night.

I got a piece of mail across my desk today saying that "sovereignty" is anti-Semitism. That is how crazy this narrative has gone. It's as if people are brain-dead. Not only are they too dumb to catch onto what is actually going on, but they can't even sort apples from oranges anymore.

They can't tell the difference between private business and public business, between one country and another.

We have Phil Hudok and others, including Flag Officers, too clueless or disloyal to realize that if they stand under the King's Law, they subject themselves to the King. And lose their heritage as Americans.

We have LGBTs "embracing" Pedophiles, as if the knowing acts of adults are comparable to and in the same league with parasitic rape of children.

Please do all that you can to wake these people up. Observe that we are all being fed a line of tripe and that all these "Issues" are being used as a smokescreen by real criminals.

First, they have constructed a phony public trust.

Second, they have set up a scheme to get your Mothers to unknowingly donate you and your assets to this bogus trust.

Third, they have used the falsified documents to create false legal presumptions.

Fourth, they have used these false legal presumptions about your identity and political status to prosecute you in foreign courts run by the same perpetrators.

Fifth, they have developed an institutionalized set of mechanisms based on criminal private patents to accomplish their racketeering and piracy under color of law.

Sixth, they have replaced civilian peacekeeping forces dedicated to upholding the public law with private "Law Enforcement Officers" loyal to their own corporate agendas.

Seventh, they have created a worldwide interlocking trust directorate scheme involving 147 corporations to set up a system of Commercial Feudalism to serve their ends of ruling over all the Earth and all Mankind, forever.

If we don't wake up and call upon the Spirit of the Living God to end this criminality, madmen and criminals will rule over us and the Earth will be destroyed.

It is that simple.
