

Deliver Us -- A Special Prayer

By Anna Von Reitz

Father, deliver us from our ignorance, our pride, our selfishness, and our fear.

Deliver us from our hardness of heart, our impatience, and our lack of faith.

Father, give us all that we need from the abundance of All That Is.
Make us your Sons and Daughters.

Father, let your Kingdom come, and be with us forever, no longer separated from you and from each other, let us find true love.

Father, let your vision of us in the moment of our creation be done.
In the twinkling of an eye, let the Refiner's Fire pass over us.

Father, save our planet, the beautiful Earth; bring to ruin those who are ruining it, and extend your hand over the air and the land and the sea, protecting all of it.

Father, let no evil purpose prosper; let no evil man escape, and let no False God be worshiped anymore at all throughout the Universe.

Father, we are not able to rightly thank you; let gratitude for all our known and unknown blessings fill our hearts with joy.

Father, for family and friends, for the air we breathe, the water we drink and the land which gives us hope, and each new day, we thank you.

Father, let us learn to share, and to recognize those blessings you create for each one of us, and let us be deeply happy.

Father, we ask to be blessed and to be a blessing. So it is and was and will be, blessing unto blessing, and love unto love, forever.
