

International Public Notice: The Missing

By Anna Von Reitz

The total number of Chinese is down by half since 2019. This is more population loss than can be accounted for from the bioweapon jabs. And more than can be accounted for by burials or cremation evidence.

There is no trace of the missing Chinese, and what anecdotal information we receive of the circumstance in China and North Korea and other countries, too, seems to mirror the instant disappearances mentioned in the Bible.... where "two women will be grinding at the mill, and one will be taken and one will remain" -- Matthew 24:41.

The "taking" appears to come in the form of a very dark mist, as if made of pure black carbon dust blown into a cloud.

This sounds like the same black mist that covered my Son and I and saved us from the assassins. However, unlike the assassins who were turned into statues and then piles of ash-like substance, there is no report of piles of debris being left behind. This would seem to indicate that the Missing are not being killed.

If the Missing are being taken by the same friendly forces, we need not worry about those taken, but have cause to worry about those who remain.

We can't stop this or even begin to respond until we have a better idea of what kind of technology is being deployed and to what purpose.

Most likely, those who have disappeared are being transported to a different time space or spaces. We have no way of knowing if they are all going to the same destination or many destinations.

We do know that the Interstice that used to provide this kind of transport portal has been closed for several years and may be permanently disabled.

We also know that the Black Mist phenomenon may have different effects on different individuals.

Also a significant number of the people we see day to day are known to be "shades" -- not really living people, but representations of people that provide backdrop scenery, like extras in a film. Maybe -- just maybe -- these are being removed.

That would be consistent with the lack of debris, and also consistent with our finding that nobody who remains directly knows anyone who is missing, yet we observe that the streets and towns are empty.

We have yet to find anyone who tells us that their Aunt Zelda vanished, or their friend, Carl.

The Missing appear to have no families or friends. Nobody who remains is feeling any personal loss and can't identify who left. We simply observe that the place seems deserted, even though our own family and circle of friends is intact.

Or, maybe, the wish that the Evil Ones among us would simply disappear is being honored, and in days to come, only good people will be left in the world.

About 300 years ago there was another such "removal" and repopulation that involved Eastern Europe and Russian Tartaria, whose culture and technology was largely erased, though their buildings and artwork remain.

Throughout what we can directly observe of history, there is evidence of this same kind of activity, where whole populations are quickly removed without a trace--- and there is no history of war or disease or other likely cause to explain the swift and permanent population decline.

This kind of decline happened 32,000 years ago during The Great Plasma War and at numerous times since then. The sudden vanishing of whole populations or large segments thereof may be the result of an unknown form of plasma weapon.

From this same time period and for many centuries thereafter, we also have proof of anti-gravity and spatial displacement machines that are called "vimanas" --- and as it turns out, we have numerous examples of this technology and free energy technology from the ancient past also.

We hope that everyone is paying attention.

We have been lied to, kept ignorant, used and abused -- and this has been done according to a very specific "playbook". A very short and very good synopsis of this has been provided by goldenboy trust:

This is THE LUCIFERIAN PLAYBOOK—the ultimate plan to hijack a Golden Age utopia and turn it into a planetary prison. Let's break it down step by step.

STEP ONE: CUT HUMANS OFF FROM SOURCE ENERGY

A thriving civilization is one in harmony with nature and the etheric energy grid. But that connection had to be severed:

- Destroy free energy—collapse ancient etheric technology, bury pyramids, disrupt ley lines.
 - Introduce artificial scarcity—replace natural abundance with controlled resources like money, fuel, and power grids.
 - Scramble natural frequencies—use chemtrails, HAARP, 5G, and electromagnetic interference to distort the energetic balance.

STEP TWO: ERASE HISTORY AND REWRITE REALITY

If people remember their true past, they will reclaim their power. So, the past had to be rewritten:

- Burn libraries and destroy ancient records—turn history into myth and mystery.
 - Invert spiritual knowledge—demonize ancient wisdom, replace light-bringers with false idols.
 - Hijack sacred symbols and geometry—use them for control instead of enlightenment.

STEP THREE: POISON THE MIND AND CONTROL BELIEF SYSTEMS

Now that humanity is cut off from the truth, reshape their entire worldview:

- Replace direct spiritual connection with middlemen—priests, scientists, and technocrats now dictate reality.
 - Invert masculine and feminine energy—disrupt the natural balance so no one is in alignment.
 - Introduce the illusion of time—trap humanity in linear thinking instead of cosmic awareness.

STEP FOUR: TURN HUMANS AGAINST THEMSELVES

Make people their own oppressors:

- Weaponize fear—convince the world it is dangerous so people beg for protection.
 - Create artificial hierarchies—kings, presidents, corporations—layers of rulers so no one sees who's really in charge.
 - Encourage self-policing—cancel culture, thought crimes, and social credit systems ensure people enforce their own oppression.

STEP FIVE: HARVEST HUMAN ENERGY THROUGH SUFFERING

Once fully disconnected, humanity becomes a perfect loosh generator—a battery for the system:

- Perpetuate war, famine, and disease—keep the suffering cycle going.
 - Manipulate emotions through media and religion—keep people vibrating in fear, hopelessness, and rage.
 - Offer synthetic escapes—alcohol, pharmaceuticals, VR, digital identities—to prevent people from reclaiming their true power.

STEP SIX: LOCK THE PRISON DOORS AND MAKE THEM LOVE THEIR SERVITUDE

- Convince them this is normal—destroy all alternatives.
- Make them fear freedom—program them to believe that independence is dangerous.

- Sell them the illusion of choice—let them vote, but only for options that lead to the same result: servitude.

And here's the final trick: If the prisoners don't even realize they are in a prison, they won't try to escape.

_____ End _____

We agree and would only add as generalities that: (1) these characters and promoters of this process always pretend to be their victims and assume the targeted victim's identity, (2) always accuse everyone else of what they are doing themselves, and (3) always publish or announce --- in some form or another --- the evil they are proposing to inflict. When nobody objects, they carry through on it.

For example, we have just learned that the infamous chem-trail program has been published in newspapers as "Public Notices" or "Legal Notices" for years, and nobody objected to having industrial waste and poisonous incendiary chemicals dumped on them.

Take notice. Rat Watchers worldwide are asked to comb through all public notices published in newspapers and magazines.

Notice to Agents is Notice to Principals; Notice to Principals is Notice to Agents.
