

To the "Christian" Churches

By Anna Von Reitz

Especially those churches and church members misrepresenting the Global Family Bank as a "New Age" institution.

We are well-aware of Blavatsky and Bailey and their teachings. That has nothing to do with Quantum Physics, which is the basis of what Hunter discovered as a scientist researching the energetic phenomena associated with feelings of love and compassion. His research found that when we love someone we literally transmit at a specific frequency and vibration, and when we hate someone or something, we transmit at a different frequency and vibration entirely. Love and hate are not opposites. There is no duality or balance involved. They are simply different phenomena and we can consciously choose between the two distinct states of being. We are not the pawns of emotions or thoughts. We decide whether we love or hate, whether we choose life and love, or death and hate. This is why scripture exhorts us to "Choose life."

Hunter is a former fighter pilot and big business tycoon specializing in takeover acquisitions and mergers. He was literally a "hunter" and just about to take over a bunch of Las Vegas Casinos when.... some little thing kept nagging at him....an observation he couldn't quite deny....he plunged into research instead of leveraging casinos. He turned the corner.

He realized he had been on autopilot all his life and never really made "the" choice. At about the same time, he started having heart problems and was told his condition was hopeless, inoperable, except for a complete heart transplant. He lay on death's door for eleven years. During that time he experienced, directly, the reality of his choices and their consequences--- and the reality that someone else, a willing donor who just happened to be a match for his biology, would have to die in order for him to live. He had a long, long time to reflect on his life, his former unworthy, ignorant actions, and the immensity of the gift he needed in order to keep on living. During this same time, something else was happening --- the horrible hidden history of the Roman Catholic Church was coming forward in the news. He was deeply shocked and sickened, and like me, the idea that the Churches, both Catholic and Protestant, had all incorporated themselves as franchises of a secular government and were trading "Baptismal Certificates" and claiming that these represented ownership of souls, was the final straw.

Jesus called himself the Way and so far as we are concerned, it's high time that Christians started being accountable and Christian churches, too.

We believe that love is a decision. Yeshuah demonstrated this by his acceptance of the cross and by his teachings throughout his life. He could have turned away and didn't. He could have taken up arms, like Peter, but he didn't. He could have summoned Angels to save him, but didn't. He chose to love us and suffer along with us, and endure the worst kind of death that any of us could suffer, so that we would never be alone or separated from him by our sufferings.

Do you all understand that, or are you just muddling around thinking that he died "for" our sins, and not because of our sins? Do you realize that he had to die so miserably to forge the bond and reach the utter depths of human misery and injustice, in order to commune with each one of us, no matter how horribly we suffer?

Don't talk to me and Hunter about Helena Blavatsky and irresponsible gossipy suppositions to the effect that because we no longer belong to any incorporated church and speak of choosing love and life as a way of life, that we "must" be New Agers! Oh, dear hearts, in the past ten years we've had all sorts of sanctimonious Bible Bangers come to us and not one of these priests, pastors, or prophets could explain --- when faced with the facts --- why they incorporated their churches and invited secular masters to rule over them?

Why didn't they maintain the Creator as their King? They'd already won the battle! They were already tax free! But they let Satan enter in without so much as a whimper! And they twisted the quote about "rendering unto Caesar" as their excuse. Since when did those who were bought with such suffering and love become the property of Caesar?

Shame on every organized and incorporated and tax-terrified church and all the men and women who think they shall find salvation by rolling over and "giving up to get along".

When the hypocrites were given the choice, the organized churches couldn't wait to go down to the State of State office and sign up as 201 (c) (3) organization and thereby avoid a tax that they never owed in the first place. Call it ignorance. Call it cowardice. Call it stupidity. The fact remains that all these churches incorporated and subjected themselves to be counted as "legal fictions" --- that is, lies.

Pope Francis, perhaps seeking to repent for his sins, recently and in public admitted that all this "legal stuff" was made up. It's all just fiction. Bull crap. Imaginary. Lies. Deception.

Like a dime novel. The Curia created all these "business models" --- S Corps, C Corps, B Corps, Cooperatives, Associations, Trusts, Foundations, LLCs, etc. -- and claims to own them all, just as they copyrighted their version of The Holy Bible as a work of art. Yet here we all are, paying taxes to fictional entities, and paying taxes for fictional entities, bowing and scraping to codes and regulations purported to rule over these fictions, and letting ourselves and our churches up to be counted as "corporations" ---- among the dead things dreamed up by the Roman Curia for fun and profit.

Fiction is fiction. It has no substance. No "right" to exist. It's all in your heads and your heads have been filled with self-defeating drivel.

In the days to come, the Apocalypse is going to hit everyone in the face like a slab of half-frozen halibut, and all will see what they have been believing in and supporting and depending on. It will all stand revealed as a Kingdom of Lies, and the churches, especially the Roman Catholic Church, will be revealed as the Source of most of the Big Fat Ones. The Protestants will not stand guiltless before the True God, because despite all their sufferings, they were prey to the lies of money, power, and pelf, too.

Bottom line --- when all these churches had the power and freedom and the opportunity to choose life, they still chose death -- incorporation -- instead. When given a choice between the Creator as their King and Caesar, they chose Caesar. And to this day, they are still hopelessly engaged in the idolatry of money, still worshiping graven images, and don't have the brains to start figuring out a way to transition out of this idiotic premise that pieces of paper and little pieces of metal are the source of value in this world.

Hunter and I are calling you all out. We are ringing the bells. We are speaking the truth. We are intending to end the entire enslavement racket and delusions of "units of value" and money and credit in sum total --- and when the rest of you including the churches wake up to the complete insanity of what you have been doing to yourselves and each other and the planet in the name of "profit" and "self" and "ego" --- you will be well and truly sickened by what you have participated in without a thought.

We, Hunter and I, are giving you all a chance to "put your money where your mouth is" and help bring about a gentle and kindly transition away from all this insanity and idolatry.

If you are ready to stop being deluded, stop being enslaved, and stop believing in fictions, now is the time.

We often see "New Age" sites on the internet. We hear the bells and bongs and purported Templar chants. We listen to the Hopium. We hear about all the wonders the Enforcers are bringing to us. Do you know how you can discern the difference between the truth and the lies?

In the New Age narrative, the money, the love, the new job --- whatever it is --- is always "coming" sometime in the future. It's never here now. It's always delayed. It's like Heaven. All your suffering now is nothing compared to the glory of Heaven. And of course, you have to die in order to experience Heaven, so just lay down in your chains and resolve to suffer like Yeshuah suffered. That's what they say. That's what they teach. And that's the Lie, too.

You have to do this and you have to do that, according to them. A certain threshold mass of people have to do the same thing, according to them. You might as well all pretend that you are children engaged in a game of "Simon Says".

All that is, is here, is present, now--- and always has been.

This is not a matter of belief. It's a matter of physics and the way the Universe is constructed. You don't have to "believe" when you can know.

I am a mathematician. Hunter is a physicist. We know. We are telling you, hopefully, in words you can understand.

Yeshuah never told you to worship him. He told you to worship his Father, the Creator and Embodiment of All That Is. With such parables as the roots, the vine, and the branches, he tried to make you see that you are part of the whole, not some "other" thing at all. If you won't listen to us, at least listen to your own Teacher and take what Yeshuah actually taught you to heart. Forget the ego of self and selfishness; embrace the truth of wholeness with your whole heart.

And stop trying to guess what we "believe" and dumping us in a bin with every other religion you know nothing about and don't believe; we will tell you flat-out what we believe:

What we believe is that the churches, all the incorporated churches, are hopelessly corrupt; what we believe is that they sold us a bill of goods including corporations acting as governments and "Presidents" acting as Kings; what we believe is that they did this to profit themselves and to hold coercive power over others; what we believe is that this whole horror show of lies and distortions is about to meltdown and is melting down even as we speak; what we believe is that the forms of "money" you have been using are worthless -- literally; what we believe is that all money is a form of idolatry and shouldn't even exist; what we believe is that the actual "value" that exists is the value that we are and which we assign to things around us; what we believe is that after a period of transition in which everyone else learns what we have learned, there will be no belief in money anymore and we won't need to use money to live our lives and exchange value with other people; what we believe is that there is no reason, other than ignorance, for poverty, pollution, disease, or any other nasty physical limitation that we have had to contend with in this world; what we believe is that evil ideas are the cause of hatred, fear, prejudice of all kinds, elitism, laziness, and all the other causes of terror, war, and violence are the result of these evil ideas; what we believe is that these evil ideas and the use of money are lies that have been seeded here, like weeds cast into a garden; what we believe is that this mental and emotional "pollution" has been growing out of control, like an invasive weed, for centuries; what we believe is that we each, individually, have the power and potential to wake up, rise up. and uproot the lies and evil ideas that have enslaved us and which have turned our planet into a stinking polluted cesspit and slaughterhouse; what we believe is that each one of us who undertakes this work is billions of times more powerful than those who remain asleep; what we believe is that the truth is also billions of times more powerful than all the lies this world is mired in.

This is what we believe. We have not shirked before our Creator and tried to cast off our sins or fail our confessions. We have not counted ourselves unaccountable. No, we have done and are doing whatever we can to make amends and correction, to end the idolatry as expeditiously as possible without causing more harm to the innocent. We have taken action, action, action. We have never stopped in our assault upon the lies and ignorance that enslave the whole planet. And we never will. Not until the day when all people can draw a deep breath and be secure and happy in this world.

If every "Christian" church and "Christian" person hearing this took the teachings of their own Teacher to heart, we would stand among you. If you shed the skin of a legal fiction and ran your churches as honest men, we would support you. If you stopped lying to yourselves and to others, if you made the effort to admit what you don't know, if you confessed and repented your many sins and errors and omissions, if you took responsibility for the rights you exercise, if you were grateful for your own blessings, if you bothered to truly commune with Yeshuah, and most of all, if you truly cared about suffering humanity, we would be there at your side.

As it is, we don't have much respect for you.

In our opinion, you are disgustingly, willfully gullible and easily misled into any amount of travesty and filth, stubborn and hard-hearted and while eager to judge everyone else, are tardy in judging yourselves. In our opinion, you talk a lot and do little. You the "Christian" churches are the Kings of Wa-Ha --- talk, talk, talk, and do nothing. Where were you while billions of dollars earmarked for the relief of the poor in Third World countries went missing? At the trough, soaking it up for yourselves. Did you chastise the policy makers and expose their corruption? No, you were benefiting from it. You kept your mouths shut. Hypocrites.

While you stand up in the churches and weep and wail and shout "Hallelujah!" on Sunday, on Monday, it's all dirty business as usual. Just like the Pharisees and Sadducees, you puff yourselves up and strut around and seek to impress everyone with your learning and your offices and your trappings of authority, but you have learned nothing worthwhile despite the sacrifices of others. Your hearts are voids and your minds full of self-interest and lies. Like Sunshine Patriots, you are Sunshine "Christians" --- when it's convenient, when you can gain in some way, then you are front and center, banging on a drum, drawing attention to yourselves, sitting down in vast conferences, plotting how to gobble up more tax free real estate, that will in most cases, sit empty and useless for six days out of seven, or more investments in low income housing that the government pays you for, and which you let sit empty--- while the poor languish in the streets. Empty apartments require less upkeep costs, so you make more money on your government kickbacks.

And you sell your votes and the votes of your perennially misled congregations to the highest political bidder. Tell us again how Joe Biden was a Catholic. Tell us again how G.W. was a Protestant. Tell us again how King Charles III is any brand of Christian at all.

These venal men haven't even thought about Yeshuah in years, if they ever did, and he won't know the name of "Christ".

Just like everything else that has gone down sideways and upside down under the auspices of the "Christian" Church, you can't even honor the Teacher whose work and life you are selling by honoring his name. You set up a False and Foreign Office instead, and honor the Office instead of the man. You use his teachings to entice the crowd and then misrepresent him as "the Christ" --- "the Anointed One", the High Priest of the Ancient Phonies, a Phrygian godhead synonymous with "Zeus" --- "I Zeus". Jesus. You ought to be bowed down in shame, but you keep right on preaching salvation "in the name of Jesus Christ".

Depart Evil Ones, don't even wait to hear it for yourselves. Just hike on down the street on your own two cloven feet. Take your lies and misrepresentations with you.

And as for the many Zionists among you, the Jews who are not Jews, the Synagogue of Satan, who pretend that they are the Sons and Daughters of Jacob -- that may be true, for Jacob was a Liar and a Thief of the first order, who betrayed his own Father, and who was beloved by Satan as a result.

Zionists are not religious. They only use the religion of Judaism as a storefront and pretend that the religion is a nation for their own benefit and convenience. Look what they have done and judge their fruits -- they use a Terrorist Organization, Hamas, that MI6 pays for using "misappropriated" money gleaned dishonestly from the American people, to stage a False Flag event, which they then use as their excuse to carpet bomb the entire Gaza Strip, killing tens of thousands of innocent people in revenge for what? Less than a thousand killed by Hamas? This was intentional. This was a plan. This was not some crime of passion, some over-reaction based on fear or outrage. This was purposeful genocide and no actual follower of Yeshuah could ever condone this, and yet....

There you "Christians" are, supporting Israel, the Sons of Jacob, the Liar. Why? Because you mistakenly think that these men are related to the Hebrews and to Yeshuah, even when he told you himself that these purveyors of money, these supreme hypocrites, are not Jews, and chased them out of the temple.

Jacob was a Liar and a Thief, who betrayed his own Father. Of course, Satan loved Jacob. Satan is the Father of All Lies and All Liars, but you "Christians" can't even tell the difference between the Author of Justice and the Lord of Deceit.

You are told that Esau sold his birthright for a bowl of porridge, to try to excuse Jacob's actions. We say that is a pretty good trick, because Esau didn't yet have any birthright to sell. The birthright still belonged to Isaac, and it was Isaac who was robbed and defrauded. It was Esau who was deprived.

This nasty, unprincipled, selfish, cowardly, uncaring, endlessly deceitful character called Jacob could have been a character styled by Danny DeVito.... and he brought up his sons and grandsons to be ungrateful and hard-hearted and dishonest and prideful and grasping and greedy to follow in his footsteps.

They sold their own half-brother, Joseph, into slavery for a few pieces of silver, didn't they? Want more proof? After Esau forgave Jacob, Jacob's sons later murdered Esau, their Uncle.

When Jacob wrestled with an "angel" at Bethel, it was a Fallen Angel, Satan himself; Jacob gave ten of his Sons to Satan to save himself and they fathered the Ten "Lost" Tribes of Israel. Lost to the Truth and the True God, betrayed by their own Father.

But you, "Christians" think this is a great story and you cherish a stone, the Stone of Scone, that Jacob purportedly used as a pillow for his head that fateful night; you set your false kings upon it and celebrate a Father who sold his Sons into slavery to Satan, just as he robbed and betrayed his own Father and stole his brother's birthright.

Nathan Rothschild was a money-changer. Still don't have a clue? Jacob Rothschild, the Father of Israel, was a money-changer, too. And who did Jesus throw out of the temple? Who did he describe as "the synagogue of Satan"?

We think you "Christians" don't even read your own book.

These people are Liars and the Sons of Liars and they are proud of it, very proud. They claim Satan as their Father and Lucifer as their brother, but nine-tenths of you "Christians" don't bother to read the Bible or really think about what it says, so you don't know who these "Zionists" are. You can't recognize them. You think the Zionists are Jews because they wear prayer shawls and go through the motions.

You think it is a coincidence that there are Ten Lost Tribes and Ten Kingdoms in the Book of Revelation, too?

So tell us why Benjamin Millechowsky changed his name to Benjamin Netanyahu, if not to deceive people? To make himself sound "more Jewish" and less Polish? Hey, it sounds better, more authentic, right?

Did the irony of what we just said pass right over your heads? The lie sounds more authentic? The self-serving deceit to fool Israeli voters is what it is, worthy of his Father, Jacob.

Just like Jacob changing his name to Israel --- that is, Is -Ra- El, dedicating himself to Amun-Ra, the Egyptian Sun God. This is the same "god" that "Christians" are taught to address their prayers to every time they say, "Amen". There they are, good Christians, calling out the name of Amun-Ra, and not even being aware of it.

Yes, Anna left the Evangelical Lutheran Church and James left the Roman Catholic Church, because both these institutions are incorporated and corrupt, because both churches lie and evade and do evil and fail to do good.

How much of the billions with a "b" that these institutions received for "foreign aid" from USAID was actually spent to do anything good in places like Chad or Sudan or Tibet or even largely Christian countries like Ethiopia? No they spent that money on condoms and spraying chemicals -- industrial waste products -- on everyone's food, instead.

Maybe you missed it, but the Roman Catholic Church called for a special offering, Peter's Pence, to give the Pope money he could directly spend on the elderly, the sick, the displaced war refugees, and those suffering from the chaos of the wars. So they collected $500 million and he spent it on a new bank building in London's posh Fleet Street district, luxury condos, and Hollywood movies.

The expenses of the refugees had to be paid by the people of each country who received these "guests".

Hunter just sniffs and shakes his head.

It's one thing to purposefully lie to other people as the Zionists do, to promote their own wealth and self-interest, but "Christians" lie to themselves and push their beliefs on others without bothering to examine what they are believing themselves.

We are not "anti-Christian". We would say that there is no such thing as the Christian faith, because all the people who profess to be "Christians" have been defrauded, sold a bill of goods and not the goods in fact. Just as we have all been suckered into practicing idolatry through the use of money. Christians have been misled. Even the fact that they call themselves "Christians" and not "Yeshuans" or "Followers of Yeshuah" or something honest, bears witness to the fact.
