

International Public Notice: Two Thieves

By Anna Von Reitz

Remember that Jesus was crucified between two thieves, and so are we. One thief denied him, but the other repented. That also is our experience in The United States.

We have quite literally been in the thrall of two thieves, both intent on milking us like cows for the better part of two centuries; the first thief has been described as "the Military Complex" and the second thief has been dubbed "the Industrial Complex", but both have been black-hearted pirates so far as we are concerned.

The apparent repentance of the new Trump Administration is, to some extent, music to the ears of us cattle. A commitment to end war is always good, but if you already have things staged so that your Partner in Crime will perpetuate war against you, it's a hollow promise.

You can have your war and eat it, so long as you are the one being attacked and look like the underdog, too.

Trump, representing the Military Complex, (even though as we have seen, there is no actual military present under his command) is already struggling with a migrant invasion which the Enemies of all Mankind are using as a diversion.

Our actual military doesn't stand under Trump and has different paymasters.

Plans are underway by the Drug Cartels and the EU Industrial Interests to invade Arizona and steal the gold hoard amassed from the mysterious Grand Canyon Civilization. This hoard is, by itself, estimated to exceed all present gold reserves held by banks, and for this reason, is viewed as a threat by the BRICs and the gold-hoarding European Industrial Complex.

The Gold Cartel Agents of the EU Industrial Complex have a vested interest in preventing that gold from ever entering the world market, so they are sanctifying it as the artifacts of an unknown prehistoric civilization and planning to "disappear" it into museums, while the Drug Cartels want possession so that they can melt it down and launder it like they launder everything else, and the Military Complex is stuck in between: decorum demands that they respect the artifacts of a prior culture, but practicality demands that it be smelted down.

What can such a self-serving montage of pirates do?

Exactly what they are doing --- moving massive amounts of military hardware into Arizona and preparing to "stage" a civil war, in which they hope to both steal the gold and declare ultimate victory in a phony civil war.

It hasn't occurred to them that what didn't work before won't work again.

It's not that they have forgotten the horns of this particular dilemma.

Mercenary forces have no means of claiming land by conquest, and they have been reminded of that fact in the recent past, so the end result would be a continuance of their present illegal occupation of our country.

Of course a lot of people will die and there will be massive collateral damage, but it's all out in the desert anyway. They don't care. They want the gold and they want the drama.

At the same time, they are preparing another invasion from Canada, staged as a "friendly intervention", which is simply another gold-and-power-grab being prepped by the same guilty parties.

They hope for a single drive from Canada south to Arizona, which would separate our country in two, and establish a militarized zone -- in which all the suspected gold sources would be captured and placed under their military control.

Such are the dreams of madmen.

This "war" would be staged as a multinational war against the Drug Cartels so far as Trump and his Administration is concerned, and it would be touted as a new civil war by the EU interests involved.

The goal of securing possession of the gold would be achieved, and the American people wouldn't even know they had been robbed.

They could think it was all the fault of Joe Biden and his failed immigration policies, or they could think it was all the fault of Donald Trump, but in either case, nobody but a few generals and senior politicians would know about the existence of the gold, and therefore the actual motivation behind all the violence and upheaval and loss to be inflicted on our country as a smokescreen and ongoing resource extraction operation benefiting foreign interests.

We don't have to speculate about this, as it is already underway.

The Republicans will blame the Democrats and the Democrats will blame the Republicans, but the fact remains that only a few criminals benefit from any of this. Everyone else suffers and is defrauded.

It doesn't matter which thief is plundering which pocket, as we are all being robbed just the same. The impact of this particular theft and commercial mercenary insanity will extend far beyond our borders and if they are successful, will breathe new life into the Satanic Actors Guild responsible.

The UN represents the European Bad Actors and the EU Industrial Complex; the USA represents the Military Complex.

We present ourselves, the only actual government in the mix, and we present the fact that the gold belongs to us and to our States of the Union as we hold the only substantive international interest and our Native Nations hold the only likely cultural interest in any of the gold artifacts.

As such, our British Territorial Subcontractors --- Mr. Trump and Company, need to stand down and tend to the job of deporting illegal aliens back to their home countries and securing any gold that belongs to us for our knowledgeable use; the former Municipal Government employees that have been hired and retained until January first of 2025, also need to stand down.

We are not deceived. The Perpetrators need to reconsider their proposed operations on our shores and choose a different path.
