"The term "United States" may be used in any one of several senses. It may be merely the name of a sovereign occupying the position analogous to that of other sovereigns in the family of nations. It may designate the territory over which the sovereignty to the United States [672] extends, or it may be the collective name of the states which are united by and under the Constitution."

None confirmed or legitimized by an act of Congress.

Furthermore, The United States of America is incorporated as 3 different Corporations. Twice in Delaware and once in Scotland.

The United States of America, Inc. and United States of America, Corp. are incorporated in Delaware.

The United States of America, Ltd. is a Limited Corp. incorporated in Scotland. The registration is held at White House #2 (sister White House) in Edinburgh. The country of origin for USA, Ltd is U.K., which in my opinion confirms what I've suspected for a long time, we are still owned by Britain. (see original American flag "Grand Union Flag"). But that's a complicated story.
