

International Public Notice: the Vice President – Literally

By Anna Von Reitz

Many people have been shocked to see J.D. Vance selected as a Vice-Presidential candidate and running mate for Trump.

Remember -- just as these Corporation "Presidents" are not elected by popular vote, but instead by members of the Electoral College, they don't actually get to choose their running mates, either.

Most people also think of the Vice-President as a sort of Second in Command, ready to step in if the President is disabled.

Stop and think again what the words actually say and imply. What is "vice"?

So, logically, what is a "Vice-President"?

He's the guy in charge of dirty operations, the bag man, the collections agent, the enforcer, the filthy tricks administrator, the bad guy standing behind and just to the left of the "good" front man acting as President.

The duo of President and Vice-President is the personification of the whole Duality Paradigm in action. Think of the French King and His Grey Eminence, Cardinal Richelieu.

Why would we have such a "Vice-President" associated with our country---?

Short answer: in order to administer all the programs related to Sin Taxes and Federal Revenues and Black Ops and Money Laundering, etc., etc.

Remember, the Federal Government was originally designed and intended to operate entirely on the revenues collected from federally regulated substances --- alcohol, tobacco and firearms --- and federally regulated activities: interstate commerce.

Of course, they branched out into other kinds of sin-based income streams: indentured servitude, enslavement, counterfeiting, non-negotiable promissory notes, money laundering, war-for-profit, drug production and smuggling and pushing, human trafficking, illegal arms sales, illegal confiscation, impersonation, barratry, biological and weather warfare, brain-washing, etc.

The Vice President is in charge of handling this entire Empire of Vice.

So no surprises that J.D. Vance is a good candidate for this office -- another "Skull and Bones" graduate of Yale University, who worked for "Ambrosia" a company selling adrenochrome products, an attorney who worked for the Sidney Austin Law Firm which also employed Barack Obama and his spouse.

Even J.D. Vance's wife is a perfect helpmate -- a Gates Foundation beneficiary and devotee, a law clerk for John Roberts and Brett Kavanaugh, educated at Cambridge, so the Brits have their dedicated spy and influencer on the inside, calling shots for them at the highest levels.

Never forget what we are telling you. It's not the front man you have to watch. It's the guy standing right behind him.

There is a reason nobody liked Mike Pence. There is a reason nobody liked Lyndon B. Johnson. There's a reason nobody will like J.D. Vance, either.

Also remember that he is the one, coiled like a rattlesnake ready to strike at Trump's right hand, just like LBJ was ready to take down Kennedy and, conveniently, assume command.

This is a crime family --- just a different kind of crime family, where the real "power" is vested in those who appear to be second-in-command or not in command at all.

The American people are growing up and can now see what is taking place and how it is staged and who is staging it and what kinds of excuses are being employed to perpetuate what is essentially a commercial corporation gone wild --- a commercial corporation working for and being directed by foreign interests as a trans-national crime syndicate.

The Holy Roman Empire brand of this corruption has gone underground and withdrawn from the public field of mercenary and commercial "battle", leaving their Enforcers, the British Empire and their clueless American Mercenaries to protect their rear flank.

We can only hope that some of the Horse Fly Maggots they are breeding by the millions and dropping on Argentina and Panama will find their way to a prime spot on all their lily white rumps.

Argentina is being targeted because they are a world class producer of beef and Panama is being targeted because they want to take back control of the Canal.

They --- these men and their women, too --- all remind us of the nasty little boys who used to linger in the cloak room to play with themselves and pull wings off of flies. Once you see them for what they are, they are an odd mix of criminals and actors. They and their objectives and modus operandi are not hard to identify.
