

We Haven't Forgotten

By Anna Von Reitz

Just about a year ago, Joe Biden held a press conference and he very indiscreetly and openly threatened the Nordstream 2 Pipeline:

To jog your memories:

He basically said that if Russia invaded Ukraine, the Nordstream Pipeline would be toast; Russia invaded Ukraine, and a couple weeks later, the Nordstream 2 Pipeline was sabotaged.

Now, I wish to draw everyone's attention to a little-known fact. The Swedes are the ones who have the undersea intelligence contracts and let me tell you, those resources are top of the line.

You couldn't spit in the Baltic Sea or any body of water connected to it without the Swedes knowing about it.

So the Swedes do know who was responsible for the sabotage and the out of control energy prices in Europe right now, but they are wimping out.

"Ten thousand Swedes chased through the weeds and just by one Norwegian."

No doubt any one of the four countries whose infrastructure was ruined by this and whose coastal waters were violated by the trespassers could sue the Swedish Government for disclosure, but they won't, because all their governments are "under Occupation" --- still, from WWII, by the same ones responsible for this gross, irresponsible destruction.

Chuffer Joe really is China's puppet since the Pope and the US Trustees gave the UNITED STATES, INC. assets to China under the mistaken idea that China was owed trillions of dollars and was the Priority Creditor --- when it isn't and wasn't.

And they had reason to know that, but the criminality has gone so far that they will pretend that Limburger Cheese smells like a tulip.

So here we go with another conundrum caused by criminality. The Swedes know, but they aren't telling, making them accomplices to the crime. The German Government, such as it is, knows, but they aren't telling. Ditto. Ditto.

And we all know, because we know that China and Big Oil are doing the 10-40 Two Step. Or is it a tango, with a lot of leg showing?

Joe irrationally (unless you know that "China Joe" isn't just a nickname) sells our Strategic Oil Reserves to China.

Joe orders the hit on Nordstream 2, thinking that the Europeans will then be forced to pay sky-high prices for American oil products.

Instead, the Europeans break out their old coal burning dynamoes. To hell with green anything and double on Sundays. Hypocrisy and guile have their limits, after all.

If these people had the common sense of a hedgehog in heat, it would be different. At least mildly entertaining. They might display some intelligence and creativity as they attempt to avoid the obvious conclusions.

As it is, it's just plain sickening. It was bad enough having Americans blamed for things "the US" did, but now on top of it, "the US, Inc." is owned and operated by China, and we are getting blamed for all their little dirt piles, too.

People in Europe want to know what's happening? Why would "America" their good friend do this to them?

Well, "America" didn't do it. China did it to capitalize on US, Inc. oil refining capacity, while sucking up our crude oil reserves for itself. And Russia? Well, Russia had better know that its Allies, the Chinese, are the ones who -- at the end of the day -- used Chuffer Joe and his Pals in Crime to take out their Nordstream 2 Pipeline.
