

International Public Notice: We Know

By Anna Von Reitz

It's true. We probably don't hate Biden and Harris enough, but getting involved in the whole political sideshow and voting for Trump is not the answer, either. Not voting and not caring is the answer.

Both Trump and Biden supported and participated in the Pandemic. Both pursued anti-American policies in the Mideast. Neither one of these men have been honest about the history of this Mess, or even the facts about the phony political-party elections.

We know that the Presidents of these corporations are actually elected by the unaccountable Electoral College. We know that our votes don't count. We know that "registering to vote" makes us presumed shareholders liable for the expenses of these bankrupt and corrupt foreign corporations that have been masquerading as our government.

We know that no matter what flavor of crap we choose, it's still crap.

We know. So it's ridiculous for "Law Enforcement" or anyone else to think that our members are acting as "Sovereign Citizens" or that we give a rat's rump enough about these private corporation elections to bother to take a pot shot at any of the Talking Heads.

Our Assembly members and everyone associated with the American State Assemblies knows that we are not allowed to vote in these elections, if we wish to maintain our separate identity and political status. We shouldn't even send donations to favored candidates, because that muddies the water, and makes it look like we are illegally influencing a foreign election.

Which goes back to the fact that we know the straight up skinny and we act accordingly.

We know that Joe Biden isn't "our" President. And we know that Donald Trump isn't "our" President, either. We know that both these men have been working as the "Presidents" of two different for-profit foreign privately owned corporations in the business of providing essential government services.

So what?

We don't get bent out of shape or keep track of who is "President" of Walmart, do we?

And Walmart means more to most of us than anything coming out of Washington, DC.

Walmart provides us with more benefit than any part of the Federal Government, with the single possible exception of the Post Office.

We can tell the Democrats and the Republicans ---- don't bother spending billions trying to get the Silent Majority roped up and entrapped and "registered" to pay debts owed by British Territorial U.S. Citizens or the Municipal citizens of the United States or both.

That's not us. We're not them. Never were and still aren't.

And the police can breathe easy and stand down, too. All the Agencies can take a well-earned permanent vacation.

Nobody here is subject to any of you, so we don't have any motive to spend our time or energy plotting any insurrections or violent attacks. All we have to do is know the truth and keep on trekking.

There is some evidence that Media Mumblefocks have tried to suggest that one of our American State Nationals was engaged in some kind of a planned attack and was going to shoot Trump or Harris, one of them.

If so, it couldn't have been for any political reason. We don't vote in those elections, because we know they are private elections pertaining to foreign corporations. And we aren't shareholders.

Simple enough.

If, now or ever, one of our people comes unglued as an individual and shoots at any foreign DC politician, you can be sure it's an individual meltdown, probably caused by the sheer irritation of having to listen to their campaign ads all day long for four months prior to private corporation elections that don't, actually, have anything direct to do with us.

So, Talking Heads -- and everyone "managing" them, please take your own Tin Hats and Conspiracy Theories and Oxymorons (Sovereign Citizens, Secular Religions, and Military Intelligence, etc.) right on down the road. Don't bother thinking we are "Left" or "Right".

We don't have to take up arms, use bombs, or stage bought-and-paid for riots like some parties. We don't do Good Cop - Bad Cop, use Buzz Aldrin Decoder Rings, or get all wound up anymore.

We are no longer living our lives in fear of our own employees.

To paraphrase Elvis Costello, "We used to be disgusted, but now we try to be amused...."

We have our own peaceful and effective means to deal with run amok public employees. We don't have to shoot DC politicians. We can fire them. Ask Joe Biden. We don't have to foment any insurrection against foreign corporations. We can bankrupt them all and do it all day long. And if anyone thinks that we can't enforce our contracts, it's time for Bonzo to get a new pair of shoes and take a hike.

We know.
