

We MUST Speak

By Anna Von Reitz

People contact me, concerned when I talk about "this other stuff" --- a world that they are not aware of. Well, I came to teach you many things you are not aware of. It's not just American History that you need to know. So in answer to concerned friends:

Yes, love and hate are two distinct forms of energy, completely separate. 538 MHz resonates in all octaves as love. 741 MHz resonates as hate.

As part of the artificially engineered development of the reptilian super-soldiers they were "tweaked" to need 741 energy and blood and Adrenalin/Adrenochrome. They are hard-wired this way from birth and it is not natural and it is not their fault. It is the result of ancient wrongs that have still not been corrected.

We have the means now to correct this and return them back to their natural biological pattern. We also have alternative food sources that don't involve terror and bloodletting for people or animals.

They don't WANT to hear my voice, but they can't help it. They are drawn like moths to flame, negative to positive. In the past few weeks I have cranked up the ante so they are now witnessing the loss of their Martian allies who are being removed from the planet and relocated to a new home.

Ultimately, the solution to the Draconian's dilemma is similar. Those who endured the Orion Captivity need to be healed and returned to their true nature and a new home. They can't go back to Draco because their evolutionary pathway has diverged from what has happened in their home world — which is largely denuded and dead. Nothing to go back to.

We can't blame them for being what they are, when we have literally made them what they are. It would be like blaming a poodle for being a poodle, after breeding in poodle characteristics for 10,000 years. This is why I say they should not be harmed despite the terrible things they have done. Instead, they should be changed back to their true nature, relieved from their unnatural needs, and allowed to live in their own place and set free to make their own choices like everyone else.

This is the carrot. The stick — which they already know — is their wholesale destruction.

If their ancient code remains, they will hear my Voice and do what I have told them to do. Shatan, who has taken refuge with the Pope, and his son “Lucifer” will be turned over to the Sirians without a fight.

Otherwise, there will be a war between the Draconians and the Sirian Seraphs and the Draconians will lose. This is because the Sirians are very advanced and much, much stronger, but even though their defeat is sure, that doesn't mean that the Dracos wouldn't fight and die simply for the sake of doing so.

I am hoping to avoid that outcome, because the damage would be severe and because a total destruction of the remaining Dracos would be unjust. They were the victims of the Rebel Seraphim as much as anyone else.

They were misled by their own genetics to listen to these False Priests. Now they have heard a True Voice again. It's anyone's guess what they will choose, who they will believe, and what they will do.

The Sirians have been waiting here politely since 2012, collecting up the remaining Seraphs on this planet, both the rebels and those that simply want to go home. I am on duty here for another thirteen years, which is the time frame left for everyone to get their act together and choose either life or death.

I don't like discussing this kind of stuff in public for obvious reasons, but people have to become aware and learn to deal with the complexity of the Air Jurisdiction, too.

It has its own history, its own populace, its own traditions and its own problems— and in order to be fully alive and fully competent as adults, Mankind must learn to deal with this realm of existence, too.

How are we to help Mankind make that leap if we never talk about this in public? If we leave “relations” in the Air Jurisdiction in the hands of a few old men — well, you can already see what has happened.

So we have to talk about it and make progress as the Germans say—Mach Schnell!!! People have to become aware and savvy about all components of their nature and existence. They have to understand the aftermath of The War in Heaven that they are living through.

They have to know that there is a man living in and being sheltered by the Church right now, who is literally the incarnation of Satan on Earth— a fellow you can talk to, just as you talk to me. He was “cast down” to Earth and I came here on purpose, but we are both seraphim robed in flesh.

Many such have walked among the Children of Men— both those who protect and those who prey upon, those who serve the True God, and those who serve other ends.

There is still a choice to be made and Mankind has been left ill-equipped to make it.

So we must speak and we must teach while there is still time.
