

Why Step By Step

By Anna Von Reitz

First, imagine that your country has been internationally declared a battlefield without your knowledge.

Second, imagine that two groups of mercenaries have been hired to fight on this battlefield and you are stuck in the middle as an "undeclared" person.

Third, imagine that both sides in this secret "war" are intent on impersonating you as someone from the other side, so as to justify mistreating and abusing you and stealing your property.

Fourth, imagine that one side in this secret mercenary war is funded by communists, and the other side is funded by capitalists. And you are neither one.

Fifth, imagine that all of this is grossly illegal and against international law, but it proved so profitable that the Principals responsible continued it for 160 years. And since you didn't know anything about it, you didn't object.

Sixth, imagine that all this has been discovered and that the Principals responsible --- on all sides --- are being brought to task for it.

Ever seen one of those Mall Maps that say, "You are Here" with a big red "X" showing the location of the map display?

Well, you are "here". This is what you are facing, and this is why it is very important to declare your birthright political status as an American State National. And do it properly.

Until you do, you can be mistaken for an "Enemy Combatant" in an illegal mercenary conflict.
