

International Public Notice: You Heard It Here First

By Anna Von Reitz

We share a warning quote from "Sony Thang" --- A Wise Man:

"Shutting down USAID isn't an end, just a shift in method. The machinery of [the] empire doesn't stop—it adapts. USAID was always a front, a financial laundromat for intelligence operations. If it disappears, the funding pipeline will just reroute through CIA cutouts, "civil society groups," or private foundations. The U.S. doesn't overthrow governments because of USAID—it uses USAID because it overthrows governments. The intent remains unchanged. The tools evolve. When one mask slips, another takes its place."

Which means we have to be watching the reorganization of the gubmint very closely, or the same evils on steroids will soon raise their ugly heads.

The duplicitous nature of the "government corporation" is well-known and established. So also is its diabolical nature a known quantity.

Who else would advertise "home loans" and propose to use your house as the asset backing their "loans" to you and ten other people?

It's your house that was loaned, but you get none of the profit, nor the inequitable security interest.

Or, how about, passing off a foreign commercial corporation merely calling itself The United States of America (Incorporated) as the government of this country?

We first told you about the new "Sinai West" Canal development and the in-tandem development of the Eastern Mediterranean Oil Basin slated for the now "depopulated" Gaza Strip.

Yes, there is also a reason for the focus on the Panama Canal and either wrestling back control or that, or building a new canal through Mexico. All this talk is surfacing now for a reason.

The Vermin are focused on having the biggest pipeline control scheme in the history of the world. They want to control the flow of shipping and energy via massive canal projects and sit there with the levers, dictating who has access--- and who doesn't have access-- to both Hemispheres.

J.D. Rockefeller would be proud. We are merely appalled.

To hear Trump talk about Gaza, you'd think that there were still "two million people" there after the Israelis carpet bombed it for months. The few people who are left won't be any trouble to resettle -- for a price that we, of course, will be tapped to pay.

We've all paid, one way or another, for their world-monopolizing plans. The people of Gaza have paid with their homes and lives. The American people have paid with their credit and assets.

And the Vermin are still trying to pussyfoot and soft-pedal it and pretend that no, this saturation bombing of Gaza wasn't planned from the start, and no, it wasn't all in pursuit of oil development and pipeline profits.

Maybe, in addition, Trump is envisioning Five Star Hotels and restaurants and condos on the seashore, all along the shore, but out of sight of the oil platforms and drilling rigs.

After all, "the US" will have to maximize the profits.

Can't let "little people" enjoy their traditional little homes on their little strip of land, not when billionaires want to take it for nothing, kill the owners, and make whatever they want out of it.

And Mr. Trump proposes what?

US occupation of Gaza and "relocation" of all the people that Netanyahu "displaced", and rebuild everything at the expense of the American People. Not the Israelis.

<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-14361277/trump-gaza-palestinian-netanyahu.html>

Doesn't that just sound so nice and sanitary? "Relocate" and "displace"? Like "ethnic cleansing" instead of genocide?

It was and is genocide. So was the pandemic. Genocide.
Is Trump being duped again? Really?

Whatever Trump is doing with this in collaboration with Netanyahu and whatever excuses he is making about being "duped" during the Pandemic, this much is sure:

They haven't admitted that they are cost-cutting because they have to get rid of -- or rehire -- two-thirds of what was the "Federal Government".

Nothing much has been done about payback for the pandemic, and unless everyone makes a point of remembering, nothing will be done. Bill Gates is still swaggering around, still causing trouble.

Do we have a drastic shortage of psychiatric hospital beds?

After years of being told that all these high-profile criminals have been taken to Gitmo, faced trial, and been executed, now we are being told that they are all finally rounded up and being processed now. Oh, sorry, Hillary Rodham Clinton was in Belfast eating too much; no, no, she wasn't hanged at Gitmo in 2019. Or 2016. That was all "preview". Wishful thinking. Oh, but this is the real thing....

This is why we don't believe anything we're told. Not by the mainstream propaganda machine. Not by the Alt Media.

We do listen closely to Dr. David Martin. So should everyone else:
