

Just When You Thought It Couldn't Get Any Worse

By Anna Von Reitz

Did you get baptized in an incorporated church?

If so, you received a Baptismal Certificate --- just like you received a Birth Certificate,

And just like the Birth Certificate, your Baptismal Certificate was monetized and sold to investors.

Read that as: your new soul--- which was created the moment you rose up from the water of your baptism--- is being bought and sold by the "church" corporation that baptized you and interpreted your baptism as a commercial contract,

Obviously, they had a different "Father, Son, and Holy Ghost" in mind than you did. Theirs was the Marduk, Satan, and Lucifer trinity. They just didn't bother to tell you that.

So, here we are, it's 2017 and your soul is literally being bought and sold by the bastards responsible for this. And who are they?

First and foremost, the Roman Curia of the Holy See and the Roman Pontiff.

Secondly, all the dumb cluck church organizations that agreed to incorporate themselves as franchises of the United States in order to avoid taxes they never owed in the first place.

It's like having thieves and demons at both elbows, ready to catch crumbs and attach adhesion contracts every moment of every day, so that they can feed off your life energy more efficiently--- and then justify their evil works by misrepresenting you and your intentions.

Catholics---- your money and political strength is going to support the buying and selling of souls? Really? Are you aware of this profoundly dirty business going on under your noses?

Lutherans--- you, too? You think that this is the reasonable cost of doing business, that you should profit from selling souls? Fleecing the flock, instead of caring for it?

Methodists? Church of Christ? Jehovah's Witnesses? Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints? Pentecostals? Baptists? Episcopalians? Anglicans? ALL of you that incorporated your churches as franchises of the UNITED STATES and fell into the practice of issuing baptismal "certificates"?

Can you imagine a greater betrayal of trust than this?

I can't.

Folks, if you are not flabbergasted, you ought to be. If nothing else wakes you up to the evil in our midst, this must. Get on your feet and start marching. Start talking, too. It's not just your bodies and your homes and your businesses at risk, your immortal soul has been trespassed upon by these vermin, sold for profit and declared "dead".

We must destroy these corporations and the nest of vipers giving rise to them without further ado and without apology, by all means political and practical. There can be no tolerance for this abomination, now or ever.

Tell your priests and ministers and pastors to pull the plug and cancel all applications and articles of incorporation related to your churches. Cease these repugnant practices or hear the giant sucking sound of millions of betrayed and defrauded Christians shaking the dust off their sandals and finding a new and honest and unincorporated church to attend.

See this article and over 500 others on Anna's website here:www.annavonreitz.com
To support this work look for the PayPal button on this website.