

Christopher Doherty Equals The (Thoroughly Discredited) Reign of the Heavens Society

By Anna Von Reitz

And Christopher Doherty also equals the "American Herald" and the American National Union of The United States of America, also. Which nobody ever heard of, and would do well to steer clear of.

Mr. Doherty has seen fit to issue another "hit piece" trying to attack my credibility and the standing of our State Assemblies, but what has actually happened is that the snake oil that he and the Reign of the Heavens Society have been selling came to an abrupt end once the Territorial and Municipal Authorities figured out that those completely confused Bounders were infringing on our Good Name, The United States of America ---- similar to what the Scottish Interloper successfully pulled off in the 1860's, and no doubt aiming at the same end--- to foist themselves off as our lawful Federation of States and gain access to our credit by deceit.

So, all their grand claims to be "The United States of America, Incorporated" were recognized as fraud and they were forced to shut down. Imagine that? Once again, they accuse their opponents of doing exactly what they did themselves, and lie through their teeth about it.

The same old modus operandi of the Liars Club, again: accuse others of doing what you yourself did.

Even after this rather hard wake-up call, the would-be pirates continue their personal assaults, false accusations, and innuendos.

Anyone who wants to know the truth about my purported "blood oath" is advised to think about what Communion really is and really means; and they are also instructed to read the very first Article on my website, the Letter to Cardinal George (<http://annavonreitz.com/>) and finally, to also read my first book, Disclosure 101 --- if they wish to know about the work I did for the Pope for seven years and a whole lot more.

But I doubt that those who cast such aspersions are diligent or honest enough to simply look into the matter for themselves or use a little logic for a change.

I include with that the equally false twist of their propoganda saying that I am not a judge; technically, they are right. I am a Justice --- like a Supreme Court Justice, which is quite a bit higher than a "judge" though the word "judge" is more common and has come to mean any juridical person or office.

No, dears, I am not a Bar Attorney. If you actually had a copy of the Federal Constitution you could read why for yourselves --- the original Federal Constitution prohibits Bar Attorneys from holding any Office in our American Government. So, I am not a Bar Attorney and never claimed to be one and never desired to be one. Acceptance of their Oath would have meant that I could not serve my country.

For better or worse, I chose to serve.

So when you see the name "Christopher Doherty" attached to anything, know that he is not some disinterested journalist. He is one of the erstwhile perpetrators of the Reign of the Heavens Society scheme; a True Believer, and no doubt, one of the elite chosen few who signed up prior to December 21, 2011, and thus purportedly obtained their slot in Heaven by paying a healthy sum and donating their trust funds to the Reign of the Heavens Society.

I wish I were laughing, but I'm not.

There is only one safe haven for Americans and that is their own country and their own birthright political status on the land and soil thereof; regrettably, Mr. Doherty is ignorant of the danger that he is in, and he teaches others to be similarly exposed to prosecution and debt and false legal presumptions.

I repeat about him the same warning given about the Reign of the Heavens Society in sum total --- run like an antelope away. And keep running.
