

Dot-to-Dot

By Anna Von Reitz

We reject the Big Tech offer of a global take-over. The "unthinkable" is still unthinkable, Mr. Huxley.

We shall never accept the label "Transhumans" to please you and your ilk.

We are not now and never will be "hackable animals", despite Bill Gates and DARPA and all the rest of the slimeballs in the world.

And we can still connect the dots.

Fact: No separate virus called Sars-Cov-2 or "Covid 19" has ever been isolated.

This means no such virus has been sequenced or identified.

Fact: Without isolation and identification, Sars-Cov-2 isn't proven to exist.

Take that in.

That means that all this talk about "variants" and "new outbreaks" is BS, because you can't have a variant of a virus if you haven't isolated and identified any specific virus to begin with, can you? Simple logic.

If a unicorn doesn't exist, it is senseless to talk about the dangers of hybrid unicorns.

Fact: What WHO is now calling a virus is only a few dozen base pairs of amino acids that are patented for profit, whereas actual viruses have thousands of base pairs of amino acids.

This means that WHO is using relabeling -- a propaganda technique -- to redefine the meaning of what a virus is, in order to call this patented snippet of amino acids a virus and thereby deceive the public.

And Facebook, Inc., is censoring everyone who tells the truth about this, which makes Facebook, Inc., an accomplice to the fraud.

Everyone is invited to adjourn to my website: <http://annavonreitz.com/> and logic circuits intact about this and other topics.

And now, a moment to consider another idiocy---all this talk about clones and military tribunals and blah-blah-blah.

Even if you have a credible source, take these reports with two grains of salt and a whiskey chaser.

The intel reports now circulating contain a recount of a recent meeting of big [ear]wigs in Sun Valley, Idaho, and detail how members of our gallant military observed these persons engaged in child sacrifices and other Luciferian ceremonies, etc.

Observing?

Do we sit on our rumps and "observe" murders? How about armed robberies? Rapes? What next?

My point is: if these members of the military were "observing" why weren't they arresting and carting off the perpetrators of these crimes being committed right in front of their faces?

Maybe they forgot their obligation to uphold the Public Law?

I could make the rounds to a couple bars in Wisconsin and get enough guys to do what needs to be done.

I could find enough Grandmothers with garden hoes and knitting needles to do the job that's needed.

I won't pay for military services, if the military doesn't serve. And that will significantly cut into the Queen's revenues.

And then you will have two old ladies bashing your ears.
