Fake, Fake, Fake, Fake, Fake.

We are living as prisoners under a spell of deep delusion, in a Kingdom of Lies, built of deceptions and omissions —and the only way out of it is to see through it.

This year that has just begun is yours, your blessed moment to change it all. So realize that we are all harmed by this continuing song and dance, and it doesn't matter if you are rich or poor, black or white, Catholic or Protestant.

Realize that we are part of one living, breathing Universe and anything that separates us, or seems to separate us, must be overcome.

Seize this Truth and make it yours: you are your own answer.

Accept the Mission you were born for and don't be afraid.

This is our hour, our honor, and our burden.

Seize truth, love truth, live truth, be truth.

This is and has always been our destiny.

Tonight, I have received the Desperate Question— who can we believe?

Believe the True God who lives within you. Believe the Truth in your own heart. Know who you are with unshakeable force and know who you can be, and never, ever, give up or lose faith in yourself and your ability to change the world.

Each one of you can change the world into something free and true and good.

My children, when you look back upon this coming year, let there be no regrets.

When you look forward, may there be no more delusions.
