

False Gods and False Men

By Anna Von Reitz

Some people are wondering why I have "veered off" a bit from my normal course and focus on restoring American Government. It's because other forces are at work to undermine not only America, but the entire world at this time. I shall soon return to exposure of what has passed for our government, but it is also necessary now to expose what has passed for our God.

There is a True God.

The True God is a Spirit, called by many names, and described by no less than 72 descriptions in the Bible. These descriptions are not names. They are attributes of the True God, like Mercy, Compassion, and Ultimate Wisdom.

I suppose my favorite description of Our Father is: The Spirit of Truth, because people can more easily contrast this with The Spirit of Falsehood.

As I have explained before, our imagination is among our greatest gifts and powers, in no small part because our imagination -- our ability to picture things in our mind's eye -- also inspires our feelings and our actions. But, as I also observed, our imagination is a double-edged sword.

If our imagination is based on truth, blessings abound and progress is made. If our imagination is distorted by falsehood and omissions, things go sideways. So we must make the effort to discern and reason and ask for help to find Truth and adhere to it, if we want our lives to be happy and our world to prosper.

Our imagination has several known weaknesses, one of which is the tendency toward idolatry. Idolatry arises because we get confused between an image of reality, like a photograph, and reality itself. This perceptual confusion leads to odd-- even insane-- assumptions and activities.

In ancient times people made "images of God" in the form of statues, even though the True God is invisible to our physical eyes. These statues were mistaken for and treated as if they were the True God. Imagine the spectacle of a million people all encamped on the Plains of Babylon, all bowing down to a statue made of wood and iron?

And today, we have made "images of value" in the form of coins and currency, bonds and promissory notes. It's the same thing. Idolatry. The perceptual confusion between something that is intangible and a physical representation of what cannot be seen or exactly defined.

Now imagine the spectacle of the New York Stock Exchange? Thousands of traders poised like starving dogs, hunched over computer terminals, holding their chit cards, watching the big screens and small screens as if their lives depended on the flashing letters and numbers--- which are again--- "images of value" as fleeting as the numbers rolling across the screen.

What has happened is that we have been confused and have misused "keylons" or "keys" to our own brain circuitry --- letters and numbers --- to create a false, representational reality that is just as whackjob in its own way as building a stone statue and then bowing down and worshipping it.

There is even a name for the particular False Deity worshiped at the Stock Exchange --- Mammon. And, as it happens and as it has always been, it is impossible to worship both the True God and Mammon.

If you are nose down in the dirt worshiping an idol --- you can't possibly perceive the True God. You've been distracted and deceived and aren't even looking for the Truth. Your eyes are closed. Your perception is distorted. Your attention is diverted, and here's the kicker--- you don't even know that it is.

As a result, you can't correct and get your mental train back on track. You don't even know that it's off track and speeding toward oblivion.

In the same way you have been falsely claimed as chattel backing the debts of a corporation doing business "as" the United States, and worked half to death and oppressed under False Pretenses, and yet, never noticed it.

The Sons of Mammon used words and images, slogans and similar names, propaganda and false statistics and false, manipulated market reports, and they told "white lies" that turned into "grey lies" that turned into black lies, and they trooped the colors and you were deceived.

It's the same way that your lawful government has been converted into a legal "system" ---- "system" in the sense that Chicago gangsters use the word.

It's the same way that your name has been unlawfully converted, without your knowledge or consent, into the name of a corporation "doing business as" YOU.

This is how you, the living man, have been subverted and reduced to the level of an idol: a STRAWMAN.

This is why it is necessary to pray to the True God for help and protection from delusion and why it is necessary to discipline and guard and make wise use of your imagination.

All this evil for the sake of "profit" --- Mammon --- is based on Delusion. Falsehood. False representations.

False men, STRAWMEN, are created to worship False gods----CORPORATIONS.

All this evil has been accomplished using this one flaw in our imagination: our tendency toward idolatry, the perceptual confusion between what is true and a false physical representation of it.

It's as if we are not able to tell the difference between a man and a photo of a man, but we are in fact able to discern the difference if we turn our minds to it.

So turn your minds to it. Is that name on a piece of paper equivalent to you?
Is a photo of you equivalent to you?

Come on, wake up, get serious.

Are those THINGS --- the US, INC. and the USA, INC. or the UN, INC.--- "representative" of you? Or are you representative of them?

The living men and women on this planet need to wake up or there won't be a planet. The deluded promoters of Corporate Feudalism intent on their worship of their False God will destroy everything for everyone, and won't even realize they are doing it.

So now we come to an important part of the discussion --- who is responsible?

And the answer is: the Pope.

I know that a lot of people will be aghast and wondering how that could possibly be? They are used to thinking of the Pope as a religious leader, but not used to thinking of him as the Chief Conductor of the Jurisdiction of the Air.

And what exists in the Jurisdiction of the Air?

The Jurisdiction of the Air is the realm of thought and feeling, of spirits and unseen realities, of dreams and inventions ---- and also the realm of "mental constructs", "business models", "logos", "patents", "trademarks", "IDs", "copyrights", "S-Corps", "C-Corps", "B-Corps", "Non-Profit Corps", "Foundations", "Cooperatives", "LLS's", "Trusts", "Marriages", "Estates", and so on.

That is why the Pope has the unique power --- and obligation --- to liquidate any corporation that engages in unlawful activities.

And by that we mean "legal" activities.

Look up the definition of "legal" in Bouvier's Dictionary.

When the Pope doesn't do his duty, the entire world gets sidetracked into the False Worship of Mammon.

The corporations that he is supposed to ride herd on run rampant and are not held to account. They start operating "legally" but not "lawfully" as our contract with the Pope requires. They are left undisciplined and are not rebuffed in their ruthless lust for profit by any means.

Thus, Monsanto poisons half the world and suffers no punishment for it. Thus, the "US, Inc." indulges in press-ganging and enslavement and identify theft and credit theft and suffers no rebuke. Thus, the "U.S. Bar Association" promotes pillaging of unauthorized public trusts and gets away with it. Thus, the "USA, INC." cheats our soldiers and service members and lies to the people of this country and is not brought up short.

And yes, this and vastly much more, is the Pope's fault.

He and his immediate Predecessors have fallen into idolatry, so much so that instead of disciplining the corporations and keeping them in check, he is promoting their ascendancy over mankind and trying to consolidate all power in the "UN Corporation", which (he thinks) will be a willing servant to the Holy See.

In that, too, he and his cohorts at the Vatican are deluded and fallen into idolatry.

The nature of Corporations is unnatural. They are false in every respect possible.

Corporations do not even exist apart from a business model --- a collection of ideas about how they are structured and how they function and setting limits on what they can do or not do, what advantages they have or don't have. And then each one of them must be individually created on paper and "chartered" --- mapped out and their "offices" must be filled with "persons" --- not people.

They are airy-fairy Beasts from the realm of Falsehood.

So now the True God has come and sees what idiocy men have fallen into and the evil that they promote "in his name" and as you can all understand, he is not pleased. When he sees gangs of these miscreants rampaging around interfering with the weather and killing billions of animals, he gets downright angry.

And now perhaps you can all see more clearly why idolatry is still a big issue in the modern world and why we are on the brink of destruction because of it, and why we must all make the effort to regain control of our imagination and apply our discernment.

And also why we all need to be sitting on Pope Francis and banging on his door and enforcing the contracts we have with the Holy See and holding him and the Bishops to account.
