

For England 4.0

By Anna Von Reitz

Sorry that I have been deluged in recent days and feel like Noah bobbing about in a ferocious storm in my little ark with too many animals on board. Enough said for the circumstance. The Sons of Saturn are now gone at long last, but in the resulting vacuum there is a great deal of confusion.

Good Guys and Bad Guys are resolutely pointing fingers at each other and I am left reminded of my Mother wagging her head and saying, "There's so much bad in the best of us, and so much good in the worst of us, it's hard to tell the difference."

And so it is. I am more inclined to judge the money and the law than the victims of either one, but those of us who remain on Terra Firma are still left with the False Claim that we departed some years ago from our pleasant shores and are ---at least on the official records---Lost at Sea, Presumed Dead.

This conundrum arises as a result of unfortunate choices that were made by commercial corporations, operating as "governmental services providers" and substituting themselves for our national governments.

Quite simply, we are the victims of identity theft, impersonation, and credit fraud promoted by commercial corporations posing as our governments.

Read that again if necessary. This fraud against the living people has been ongoing since the 1850's in England and the 1860's in America and has since spread to virtually every country on Earth.

This Great Fraud has been promoted by deliberately confusing our Lawful Persons with Legal Persons having what appear to be the exact same names.

For example: a man with the Given Name of say--- John Christian Anderson, naturally uses this appellation as a Trade Name on dry land, and he operates as a Lawful Person under the Law of the Land that applies in his native country. He is protected by his country's constitution and the customary laws of his nation.

However, when John Christian Anderson gets on a boat and sails over the horizon to the High Seas, a change takes place --- temporarily --- and his name now denotes a Legal Person bound to obey the Law of the Sea.

So we have a Lawful Person and a Legal Person with exactly the same name---John Christian Anderson--- and it is this circumstance that the criminals have exploited to promote their fraud scheme.

It is, of course, common knowledge, that sailors may come ashore and landlubbers may, occasionally, travel upon the sea. So location is not necessarily as definitive as we might think when it comes to determining the nature and capacities and obligations of John Christian Anderson.

This circumstance, too, has been badly exploited by the perpetrators of this scheme. By presuming that John Christian Anderson is a sailor on shore, we can preferentially subject him to either the Law of the Land or the Law of the Sea, depending on our own authority.

His Captain can have him clapped in irons and thrown in the brig for brawling in a local pub. And the local Sheriff can arrest him for disturbing the peace and throw him in jail, too. Either way.

This poor fellow, John Christian Anderson, is betwixt and between, hardly able to keep track if he is a-foot or a-horseback, being prosecuted as a Lawful Person on the land or a Legal Person subject to the Law of the Sea.

Yes, it's very confusing and it's meant to be ---- and it is doubly confusing when John Christian Anderson has never been to sea in his lifetime and has no reason whatsoever to consider himself a sailor or as anyone subject to the Law of the Sea in the first place.

Now, against this backdrop of confusion and cross-claims of jurisdiction, consider what happens when there is no public record of any Lawful Person named John Christian Anderson?

Only a registration of a Legal Person named John Christian Anderson?

Suddenly, our Landlubber friend who is owed all his constitutional protections and his own national law, disappears.

What remains is a Legal Person subject to the international Law of the Sea, cast up on the dry land, and in the absence of evidence otherwise, that's how things remain.

This is precisely the circumstance that we Landlubbers face, as a result of our corporate employees neglecting to record our actual birth.

They registered the event instead, and profited themselves by creating a new franchise for their corporation named after John Christian Anderson --- who has, lamentably, disappeared. Whereabouts unknown.

This is how your identity as a living Englishman (or American or German or...) is stolen and a Legal Person Doppelganger is substituted for your Lawful Person.

It happens within hours or days after you are born, while still a babe in your cradle, without your Mum's knowing consent, and results in an Unconscionable Contract being foisted off on you along with the National Debt.

The Birth Certificate issued to John Christian Anderson is evidence of the crime committed against the actual baby who is the Holder in Due Course of that name.

Because you are never told any of this rot and because it happened when you were far too young to remember or understand anything about it, you are left helpless to complain or bring action against the Perps.

This scheme proved so profitable that we even have a double layer of it to deal with. Once the British Crown Corp registered your Given Name, they split the pot with their Boss, the Pope, and created a Municipal franchise of "you", too.

This is JOHN CHRISTIAN ANDERSON, another foreign Legal Person, only instead of being subject to the Law of the Sea, this one is subject to Municipal Law of the Holy Roman Empire. Now, you have a Papist Doppelganger, too.

Legal Persons have no natural or unalienable rights, because they are fictional in nature. They have no access to constitutional protections. They may be taxed or otherwise held accountable for debts without their consent and without representation.

Legal Persons have to obey and cannot question any act of legislation or administrative law. They are either indentured servants or slaves, no accounts, drifters, stateless world travelers on a perpetual journey, owing body and soul to the corporation that owns their copyright.

In this case, the British Crown Corp.

This is how an Englishman who is heir to the Magna Carta and British Constitution becomes reduced to an automaton, and also how the British Crown Corporation finagles a way to attach his private property assets as chattel backing its debts. This is how Westminster gets its paws into your pockets and subjects you all to the Law of the Sea, instead of the Law of the Land. This is how your homes get "mortgaged" to pay the corporation's debts.

And it is exactly the same for Americans, Frenchmen, Germans, Italians, Canadians, Australians..... we have all been outrageously dis-served by these criminal "governmental services corporations" which have all promoted this same fraud scheme worldwide.

Now, the question is, what to do about the fraud now that we've discovered it and thoroughly understand how it works?

The first thing is to correct the Public Records and get Landlubber John back on the gameboard.
