

For Sidney Powell

By Anna Von Reitz

This gallant lady must be wondering, “WT...?” — though she is far too polished to say so in public.

She has been pulled into the inner circle and shut out, pulled in and shut out, and given “the Waltz Me Around Again, Willy!” for three solid months and she has to be wondering — what’s going on? What does it all mean?

She has properly identified the Admiralty venue as the only available applicable law. She has doggedly pursued evidence upon evidence. She has loyally supported Donald J. Trump all the way— and yet?

Where is the support in return? Where is the motorcade? Where is Rudy and the DOJ? Why won’t Trump himself give Sidney the time of day?

Ah, well, you see, the situation is problematic, because both sides in this Passion Play are dirty, they are just dirty in different ways.

Every dirty deed and fraud done by the Popes and the HRE Boyz is matched pretty much head to head with dirty deeds done by the British Territorial US Military.

And of the two, the military is actually most at fault, because they have been in control since 1863 and have been occupying this entire country as an International Military Protectorate the entire time.

Joe Biden may wear cotton candy underwear, but there are Generals and Admirals who aren’t far behind him.

Most people both inside and outside the US Military support our troops to the Nth degree and for the most part they deserve that loyalty and respect.....there are, however, many issues with respect to their performance — or lack of performance — on behalf of the American People.

They have been on our payroll for 150 years with the simple job of protecting us and our borders and you can see for yourself that we have instead been preyed upon by our own grossly misdirected military.

It was the U.S. Navy that transported all our gold offshore for “safekeeping” and never returned it.

It was the U.S. Army that set up the “carpetbagger” foreign jurisdiction courts that have been used to harass, pillage, and plunder innocent Americans for the past 160 years.

It was the joint decision of all branches to recognize that THING in Washington, DC, as the “civilian” government they owed allegiance to— while failing to come to the aid of their actual employers and failing also to fully inform us, the American Public, about what was actually going on.

And let’s face it, it is pretty hard to run 900 military bases in every corner of the world and operate only God knows how many illicit business operations — from drugs to prostitution and child trafficking and arms sales— without committing crimes and full well knowing that you are committing crimes.

So the actual fact, Sidney, is that the U.S. Military that everyone expects to save them is just as filthy dirty though less obnoxious, as our Federal Civil Service— and both are foreign owned and operated, ultimately by the Pope.

And both sides— both corporations and services, that is, the US Military Service and the Federal Civil Service — are pointing fingers at each other and threatening to go to war against each other— but they are both guilty and both desperately in need of amnesty from their actual Employers, the American States and People.

Both are acting like scared and mean-spirited children, trying to bluff out this circumstance; and, neither one have a leg to stand on with respect to the fraud, pillaging, trafficking, and other crimes against our actual civilian populace that has gone on here.

And while they posture and insult each other, we’ve told the Pope as their Employers that they are forbidden to start any fight with each other on our land and soil— so the ultimate owner of both “service corporations” has no excuse for misunderstanding or allowing any conflagration to get started.

We all have an interest in putting a stop to the crimes and we all have an interest in seeing better days for this country — but that is not possible until both the military and the Civil Service own up to the facts, make honest correction, and seek amnesty for the rest.

Now, isn’t that a pretty kettle of fish?

They are not welcoming your help with open arms, Sidney, because they are all —on both sides— still trying to hide and deny their own guilt and complicity. They are afraid that once you figure it out, you will prosecute and keel haul every single one of them, because that and worse is what the Admiralty Law of 1860 demands.

It has not occurred to them that you could work in the Public Interest to help straighten this mess out and broker amnesty from the actual government.

In that way, we could finally bring peace and get the horses back in front of the carts and not waste any more time trying ineffectively to hide the Truth, blame others, or chisel anything further from the American States and People.

We need our Prodigal Employees to stop squabbling and get back to work, operating in Good Faith, and under the direction of the actual civilian government in this country.
