

From England Where All This Crappola Began --- The Word Goes Forth

By Anna Von Reitz

The word from England this morning is that the heart of every foreclosure there is in improper "re-conveyancing".

Ah, so.... normally when land or houses or other movable property attached to land is transferred, there are "transfer taxes" involved, but when there are trusts involved, this is called a "re-conveyance" instead of a transfer. Hmmm.... so, when your home mortgage was "re-conveyed" after you paid it all off, who told you that a trust was involved?

Clearly, if there was ever an actual mortgage between you and the purported lender, it would be a transfer of the mortgage cancellation, not a re-conveyance of property involved when the debt was paid off.

Just as we have been telling you, the "THING" that holds the mortgage to your house isn't you. It's an ACCOUNT operated as a trust, with the Vatican holding the equitable title (they get the cream) and "MR. NOBODY" --- your NAME in DOG-LATIN ---is left holding the legal title.

No wonder the banks come in and claim that all the funds you deposit each month in the escrow account that they secretly created in YOUR NAME are "abandoned funds". After all, you failed to show up and collect them, didn't you?

Of course, you were never told that such an account existed in the first place. There was no disclosure. Nothing, just theft and fraud.

Encouraged by their success on a one-on-one basis, the schwarmy vermin have taken it to a whole new scale of fraud and theft. They are attempting to steal entire countries using re-conveyancing fraud.

Back in the 1930's the United States of America, Inc., a private, mostly foreign-owned "governmental services corporation" went bankrupt. When it did, it committed fraud against all the American people.

It pretended that your Trade Name, John Mark Doe, was actually the name of a Foreign Situs Trust named John Mark Doe, owned and operated by them as a franchise to their corporation. They then made "him" the "surety" for their debts and placed false liens called "titles" against his assets both public and private.

That's how "land titles" came to be imposed in this country. Before that, everyone owned land via land patents, remember?

Well, this fraudulent claim is how they got their filthy feet in the door and the innocent trusting American people, believing that this THING, this governmental services corporation operating out of Washington, DC. was part of their legitimate government "assumed the debt" and paid off every penny of it.

The bankruptcy ended November 7, 1999.

But there was a problem, you see. It was 66 years since the fraud began and most of the original property owners were dead and many millions of property "conveyances" had occurred in the meanwhile, and the "US Trustees"---- the bankruptcy Trustees in charge of this mess--- just threw up their hands and said, hey, there is nobody who is clearly the heir to this property. We are just going to consider it all abandoned public property. If there are any living heirs who can prove their claim, they have to come forward and claim it.

But as usual, nobody told us, the actual heirs and beneficiaries.

They all sat mum and placed their bets behind closed doors.

And they did this throughout Europe, Canada, Mexico, Japan, Australia--- most of Asia, the Middle East, and Africa.

We aren't alone in this stinking slave ship created by the Vatican and Queen Bess. Right now, they are attempting to pull off the biggest re-conveyancing fraud in the history of the world. They are attempting to claim that this entire country and all the assets in it, are abandoned public property, that there are no heirs to be found anywhere.

Can you all see and hear this clearly? They say we are all "civilly dead" and that there are no heirs of the Republic left, and that therefore, they, the Secondary Creditors, should be free to just walk in and claim and take whatever they want. Well, guess what? It ain't gonna work that way, is it?

Get out your red pens and write to the "Members of the Congress" and tell them what you think of their filthy ploys. Hold them accountable. Same with "Loretta Lynch" and the mis-named DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE which is supposed to be championing your claims to your land instead of sitting with their thumbs up their butts allowing Secondary Creditors to make false claims. Hold them and the Bar Associations accountable--- feet first to the fire accountable.

Spread the word, people, spread the word. This cannot be allowed to proceed. The land must be conveyed back to the American People and the American States, just as England must be conveyed back to the English People and Counties.

Pigeon hole the local priests and Archbishops and write a nice letter to Pope Francis objecting to all these false presumptions and liberties being taken with your name and your assets.

Tell them to pay their own goddamn debts and stuff it. God knows you and your parents and grandparents paid tons of "debts" you never owed and that should be enough.

Time to get on with the house cleaning, Francis. Off the pot. Either honor our claims to all our property public and private and properly discharge these "ACCOUNTS" or else.
