

It Really Has Frozen Over

The New York Post endorses Trump?

ANY New York paper endorses Trump, ever?

This really is too wonderful.

Horses talk. The dead arise. The blind see.

And then, there is this:

And God Bless Clint Eastwood forever. His Shinola Sensor is as good as ever.

So all those of you who are still “voters” get out there and make a difference. Choose life and choose truth and just take it on the chin.

Continuing to be deluded and lied to just makes it harder to dig out and respond to actual life— and harder to live it.
