

No Fault

By Anna Von Reitz

I took a whole day off for Thanksgiving and the world endeavored to end. All the powers of evil tried to clamber on board and people all over this world and especially in this country attempted to spin out of control and into the realm of the absurd.

No, America is not at fault for what has befallen it at the hands of greedy, selfish, and traitorous men, dishonest and immoral “relativist” trustees, and people who have fallen victim to crime.

I am here to bear witness that the victim is not to blame.

There is no way for a Territorial U.S. Citizen to at the same time be a Municipal citizen of the United States— unless you are a Territorial U.S. Citizen operating a Municipal Corporation for profit.

Let that sink in.

So all the Municipal Corporations created as “US CORPORATIONS” that should not exist are in terror for their corporate “lives” because their existence is unlawful. And all the disloyal military-industrial-banking interests who are the de facto owners of these US CORPORATIONS are right at the front of the pack, howling.

But why do they exist, if not to create profit for their shareholders? And who are their shareholders if not Territorial U.S. Citizens?

Oh, wait— you mean the fake U.S. Territorial Citizens that never actually existed? The American babies that were “misidentified” accidentally-on-purpose and registered as British Commonwealth citizenry?

Yes.

It all belongs to Americans and Aussies and Canadians and Germans and Italians and Japanese.... to all the people worldwide who have been defrauded and impersonated and made to pay the taxes and war reparations and mortgages of these real life monsters.

They can't believe it has come to this. They can't fathom that they have been discovered after 160 years of this most profitable scam.

They are losing their stranglehold. In the end, people are not corporations and everyone can see that.

That's why the desperation to find any means, fair or foul, to justify a claim that these corporations own you. That's why they are trying to inject you with patented messenger RNA --- to turn you into just another "GMO Product". It's all about ownership "interest"--- and slavery.

If you never had a spine before, it's time to grow one. Grit your teeth and smile and say, "My body, my choice."

Feed back the very poison they have used to justify the deaths of millions of babies. Let them now eat the fruits of their silent Holocaust.

It is time to put the kibosh on all these Doomsayers who pretend that any of this is "Justice" being meted out to "America" by God.

This is nothing but the fruits of crimes committed against us by criminals acting under color of law and in Gross Breach of Trust.

Ours is a just and knowing God, a God that is not confused by the lies and tricks and verbiage. He will not hold America accountable for what "the US" has done.

Next time someone tells you that "America is under judgement" — do me a favor and correct them for me. America is the victim and this time around, the victims won't be blamed.

This time the ax is going to fall exactly where it belongs.
