

International Public Notice: It's Not Just History

By Anna Von Reitz

Not to be monotonous in our observation that the Brits are always at the bottom of every dogpile, but....

When you finally understand that so much of what we listed here was engineered by the British Crown for mercenary profit and coercive control--- history sucks in its breath.

This tiny little island has been at the bottom of all this list and far, far more; the even smaller bastion of the Inner City of London in collusion with the City of Rome and City of Washington, DC, has ruled a hidden and criminal Empire of the City that has spanned and threatened the existence of the entire Earth.

The Americans who were used to finance and provide the muscle for all this didn't even know that they were acting as mercenaries and being set up as the Fall Guys.

There is no country called Great Britain; there never was. Great Britain is an international business structure cemented together by four National Trusts which have all been breached.

Yet, strangely, the British Empire, a derivative of Great Britain, existing in the Jurisdiction of the Air, continues to have a life of its own nearly a century (1926) after its purported renunciation of Colonialism, peonage and slavery.

Just as the Brits substituted themselves and their State of State organizations for our American State of State organizations after the so-called Civil War, and just as they are still trying to sneak into our Federal Republic and substitute their version of "a" Federal Republic for ours, they lied and never gave up Colonialism, peonage, or slavery.

They simply changed jurisdictions, rebranded themselves as the UK, incorporated their business enterprises, and sailed right on, substituting Corporatism for Colonialism. They continued their practices of indentured servitude and enslavement, only now, they used paper instead of chains.

They replaced their military with another kind of "Uniformed Officers" instead, and coined another oxymoron, "civilian military" to describe the weaponized Bar Attorneys, Medical Doctors, Registered Nurses, University Professors, and other Licensed and Regulated Professionals that they unleashed on the unsuspecting world.

The vast majority of these people were conscripted under force of illegal licensure and were never even made aware of all the "professional obligations" to be imposed on them by the British Guild system and such innocuous-sounding organizations as the American Bar Association and American Medical Association and the National Banking Association and the National Education Association and so on, which have been used to coerce the members of these professions to commit crimes and accept payola for doing so.

Business as usual for the British Crown.

The clueless Americans accepted all these "Associations" and bought the excuse that they were necessary to "discipline the professions" and "uphold professional standards" and "protect the public from quackery" --- when their actual aim was to create an embedded "civilian military" dependent on licenses and required to do whatever these Associations demanded of them.

Like falsifying scientific studies and data to promote a belief in human-caused global warming, which would then be used to justify Draconian new taxes on a worldwide basis.

Like murdering a billion people (and more) using "vaccines" as a weapon injected by Medical Doctors and Registered Nurses.

Like having the same Medical Doctors sign off on paperwork registering American babies as British Territorial U.S. Citizens.

Like using PhD. Educators to dumb down three generations of American students to make us more compliant and too stupid to see through their lies.

Like using other Juris Doctors to undermine our Law Schools to teach nothing but Codes and Court Rules instead of actual Law.

Like using Certified Public Accountants to juggle two sets of books and rig the budgets of every "government" department and agency.

Like using the same licensed CPAs and Insurance Agents and Brokers to siphon off massive Slush Funds and hide it from the American Public.

On the morning of September 11th 2001, we heard Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld mumble something about losing "six trillion dollars".... just mislaid it somewhere.

The list goes on and on. They've been leading all these "professionals" around like bulls with nose-rings formed of nothing more than paper.

The British Empire, which is nothing but a crime syndicate, never went away; it just changed suits.

And like it or not, it's time for the Rest of Us to sink it once and for all.
