The idea behind vaccines is that if you inject dead bacteria or dead viruses (viruses are technically dead already, but in this case, we are talking about denatured virus) our bodies will produce antigens that recognize the proteins of the specific bacteria or virus as foreign and attack them accordingly. This can work to pre-warn and prepare the body to fight a specific virus or bacteria.

However...

As RFK, Jr. has proven in spades, vaccines today are not safe, not properly controlled, tested, composed of safe serum components, or --- generally speaking, effective.

This is because, again, the foxes have been left in control of the hen house.

Big Pharma has been allowed to do all sorts of crazy, irresponsible things like adding Mercury to vaccine serums --- apparently just to see what injecting known poisons would do to us. Uh-duh. The idea, then, that we should willingly roll up our sleeves and subject ourselves as lab rats for Big Pharma and that Big Pharma should be held harmless for the results is ludicrous, but until we all stand up on our hind legs and push back, that's what we've got going on.

And the quasi-military government of "the" United States of America thinks it owns us and is entitled to force us to submit to "mandatory" vaccinations as long as we stupidly allow them to claim that we are U.S. Citizens [This is the political status equivalent of people in the active duty military and we all know how "free" they are while on tour, don't we?]

If you ever needed a good reason to drop the U.S. Citizen mask and reclaim your God-given freedom by declaring your birthright political status as an American --- having control of your health care is about as good as it gets.

Go to: www.TheAmericanStatesAssembly.net and get started and get pushing today. Many hands devoted to both freedom and health make light work. Sit on your hands and you know what to expect.

Hand washing, surface cleaning, and fighting infections with ultrasonically distributed anti-virals, such as the essential oils [classic spice, citrus, tea tree, and oregano] proven to kill even Bubonic Plague, are far more effective in destroying all biologically active infections, whether or not these bugs are "weaponized".

But, what if it's not even a virus? What if we are seeing the effects of 5G?

Little known fact --- Wuhan was the location of the first Chinese roll out of 5G.

Another little known fact --- 5G produces radiation sickness with symptoms identical to serious influenza, or, corona virus.

Imagine that? Two for the price of one. And get the worldwide population reduced at the same time. Our nightmare, the Zionist dream.

If anyone out there was paying attention, the Democratic Party has entirely collapsed in on itself. The craziness that has dominated DC for a century and a half, as it turns out, is not superficial or even political in nature.

Recent studies have literally, factually, statistically proven that people who identify themselves as "Democrats" or as members of the Democratic Political Party, are far more likely to have been treated for mental illnesses ranging from "serious depression" to chronic anti-social conditions like "Borderline Syndrome" to Schizophrenia to outright episodic violent psychosis.

The picture of Nancy Pelosi's sullen face as President Trump read the new employment statistics for African and Hispanic Americans began to make sense. Her snarling over improved median household income, reduced crime statistics, and increased American longevity, came into focus, too.

I have already explained why the Democrats have to keep their constituents poor and uneducated and sick despite all the promises they make and despite entire generations of wielding the Big Stick in DC. Our ignorance and discontent is their Bread and Butter. It's what keeps them in power.

Our failure to check voting records and study history only exacerbates the situation and makes it less likely that we will find a solution to the common cold or much of anything else.

While you were sleeping Democrat-controlled Think Tanks quietly re-defined Old Age as a disease. Time all the Baby Boomers woke up while they still have a leg to stand on and freedom from Politburo-style Health Commissions.

Old age is a disease? Who knew? Is it catching?

There are days when I want to track down every Democrat in America and have a few words, including a Logic Test, to check out their reasoning abilities.

Bloomberg and Company can obviously see the logic that keeping people discontent and miserable while feeding them lies as to what you are going to do about it, is an avenue to power.

I wonder if they can see the End Game -- what happens to them after all their constituents are gone? Murdered by biological and economic and media warfare? Killed by despair, drugs, poverty, and war --- none of which was ever necessary?

When all those consumers misidentified as "Useless Eaters" are gone, exactly who or what is going to stoke their economies and fund their billions? Their private Caribbean Islands--- like Joe Biden's little paradise away from home?

They are smart the same way criminals are smart. Quick on the uptake when it comes to any personal advantage, but really, really slow when it comes to seeing the Big Picture of Cause and Effect.

And now it's all catching up to them.

Just say no and say it in a big way. Say it consistently, with determination and fervor. Look them all in the eye and say, "No. Ain't happenin'. Bye."

And join me in laying in a supply of anti-septic wet wipes and bleach, vinegar and essential oils, ultrasonic diffusers, humidifiers, hydrogen peroxide, and soap.

I've been saying that we really need to clean house for years. Who knew it would entail actual mops, buckets, and bleach?
