

International Public Notice: About QFS and "Reset Warnings"

By Anna Von Reitz

All of this referenced "narrative" is being brought to you by the renegade mercenary-military and their pals at the CIA. The QFS was drummed up at Wright-Patterson AFB by CIA Operatives and Programmers and Adjuncts in the "Military". It's Black Ops garbage and narrative, narrative, narrative....

There are no "quantum computers" yet. There are experimental models and the rest is just talk to keep the Normies coming. So there is no "Quantum Financial System". There is only a relatively advanced multi-bit algorithmic system embedded in a block chain large enough to handle the bandwidth of such a system.

Like the "atomic bomb" that turned out to be an advanced metallic incendiary bomb instead, the QFS is more quasi-military BS, more false advertising and whipped cream they are loading on as they attempt to set up a new systems monopoly to replace the old Swift System transfer monopoly.

Everyone, use your heads. The problem isn't because it was called the "Swift System" and was controlled by the IMF. The problem is that the Swift System was a transfer monopoly, and so is the QFS.

But as we have seen, the military in this country isn't military in nature, it's mercenary in nature and has been unlawfully converted in this manner since the 1860's. Everything that we have seen, everything that we have suffered ever since has been brought to us through and by this same criminally misdirected "military" cabal.

Yes, we said it -- a military cabal, just as bad or worse than any civilian cabal, and they have been sitting in catbird seats, aiding and abetting and expediting every bit of nastiness and war for profit that has happened in this world since 1860.

They are not the Nice Guys just because they are "military" or because they are opposed to the other Nice Guys who happen to be "civilian" --- the truth is that they are all Bad Guys, just two different varieties of snake slithering around in their respective snake pits.

The Surveillance State. The Funky Money. The Federal Reserve. The Bonds. The bonds on our labor. Our enslavement. Our indentured servitude. The theft of our basic identity as living people in possession of our own country, as Americans owed the guarantees of the Constitutions, all of it ---- took place under "military" supervision, with "military" participation, and "military" betrayal.

All the "missing" children? 800,000 per year in this country alone? You all think that this happened without the direct participation and knowledge of "the military" and "the police", too? And the courts and the "justice system"?

What happened is that they sat up one morning and said, "Oh, no! They are on to us! We've got to do something or it's our ass for grass!" So they did rouse themselves and they have been cleaning things up and shutting things down. They had to, if only to scrub the crime scenes of all evidence connecting their own precious selves to it.

Some of you are blinking back tears. Some are saying, "Don't listen to the Federation people. They never believe anything."

That's right. We don't. We let the facts speak for themselves.

Millions of people go missing from this planet every year, but nobody ever seems to know who they are or where they went. Those milk cartons with all the photos of missing children? Those weren't lost dog ads. Those were advertisements.

Milk. Pizza. Food items for monsters.

So when the military is telling you all about their valiant efforts to save the children and blowing up deep underground bases and all the rest --- nod appreciatively and think, you sons of bitches knew all about it all along, and did nothing but profit from blackmailing the blackmailers. Thank you very much for your service.

It wasn't until they knew that we were closing in on them that they stirred their stumps at all, and then it hasn't been the big sweeping drama they portray. More like street vendors rolling up their tents at the end of the day, old Cold War facilities being shut down, and evidence caches being deleted.

If the "military" and Donald Trump were all that they are supposed to be, why are Bill Gates, Jeff Bezos, and Mark Zuckerberg still in the light of day? Why is Larry Fink fat and happy? Jamie Dimon? Warren Buffet? G.W.? Benjamin Netanyahu? Silverstein? Why is Scott Bessant, a bag man for the so-called investment banks and securities brokers, now Secretary of the Treasury? And why is Jim Rickards, the architect of much of the financial skullduggery -- including the Petro Dollar -- crowing about breaking into a $150 Trillion Dollar Civil War Era "trust fund" that is never explained to the people of this country --- as the answer to the present problems?

From Ulysses S Grant to the current day -- all of this fetid history happened on the military's watch, while the "military" was purportedly in control of everything, and they didn't even spare the rank and file of their own officer corps or the enlisted.

Either they were in control and were abject criminals, treasonous scum, thieves and murderers -- or they weren't in control, and were limp-wristed, incompetent, and acting in gross breach of trust.

We are tempted to ask, "Which is it?" --- but decorum mitigates against it.

Look at what these worthless pieces of shit did when push came to shove during the Pandemic? Nothing. They aided and abetted. They let their own ranks be decimated. And here they still are, pandering and bowing and scraping to the criminals in Congress who are ultimately responsible for all of this.

And still they are still trying to cheat, defraud, control, and steal from average people who have put their trust in "the military" which hasn't been our military in a very long time. They still aren't admitting the bankruptcy of the UNITED STATES Corporation. They still aren't being honest with the public about the financial audits that the "Department of Government Efficiency" is conducting.

The CIA and other Baddies set this whole currency reset speculation up intending to cash in themselves. All the "investors" were just pawns in their schemes. You, the investor footing the bill, get the 10-20% and they and their bosses get all the rest.

You'd have to be totally bonkers to go along with any of this -- the monetary system they've set up to enrich themselves, the whole "reset" blah, blah, blah. If they get away with it initially, they won't get away with it for long.

So the real choice, Number Three, is to hike up your skirts, contact the Treasury of the country of origin and ask for the truth. Call the office of the Zimbabwean Ambassador. Call the Zimbabwean Treasury Office. Write them a letter and get it straight from the horse's mouth. Stop believing all this crap.

Most of all, people, stop letting your public employees, military or civilian, rule over you like you were mentally incompetent. The employers call the shots, not the employees.

Hello? Reality check in progress....

These people are limited to conducting their business in the District of Columbia for a reason. There is a reason that there is a "Federal Capitol" and a "National Capitol". Grow up. Learn. Get your poop in a group and get moving.

If you expect any group of employees to be honest and fair toward their employers with no effort on the part of the employers to enforce their contracts and limitations for them, then you expect something that is not in the basic playbook of human nature. You, Employers, have to play your part, use your own heads, and stand up for yourselves.

Trump worship is not the answer. And neither is any uncritical belief in or faith in "the military". The military is as full of skunks as a used car lot. And often as full of baloney.

They have risked their lives all right, and they have gone through hell all right, and most of them have been too deluded to grasp the fact that they've been lied to, used, and abused as cheap-cheap-cheap Lower Than Bargain Basement Cheap Mercenaries for hire --- but that is no reason to think that they are suddenly all geniuses and that they have your best interests at heart, or even the best interests of humanity at heart.

These same people have been paid to think up "More Better" ways to kill people and destroy the environment, both purposefully and as collateral damage --- for profit --- for 160 years. That's been their "Mission".

Now, do we expect them and the industrialists and bankers who have been using their services for fun and profit to do a 180 degree spontaneous reversal, and self-direct a new mission for themselves?

Of course, they are strategically scheming to take over the world's commercial trade routes, scheming to control critical canals, scheming to build new canals, scheming to control oil, scheming to selectively develop oil, scheming to control, control, control and monopolize, monopolize, monopolize.

It's all they know. It's their profession. It's the only mission they have ever known, now and for six lifetimes prior.

What they are guaranteed to have at heart is a fine sense of self-preservation, a fondness for drama, and greed --- virtually infinite greed.

In the QFS they have seen an opportunity to seize control of world commerce via a new transfer monopoly and also a means of controlling people and businesses down to a gnat's eyelash. And they like control. Control means that they don't have to work much. Just lounge around, drink beer and watch the screens on computer terminals. Like cameras monitoring toll roads.

Here is Donald Trump, busted on his butt, borrowing another $1.32 Trillion that he doesn't have and that we don't authorize, for what? Military spending by a bunch of goons that have failed their last seven audits. Seven.

How many audits could any other business on earth fail? Before their shareholders or owners or at least the company accountants woke up and said --- WTF?

The same Donald Trump who gave Israel $40 Billion in the first forty days of his Administration, apparently to "rearm" Israel so it could continue carpet bombing Gaza into utter, complete, permanent oblivion. And continue "incursions" in Lebanon. THAT Donald Trump, is actively preparing for war in Ukraine, now that he has a stake in Ukrainian natural resources.

Please note that we have the same Rare Earth Minerals in vast quantities in Alaska, but Trump is choosing not to develop them. That would be too safe, too sane, too practical. As usual, the "military" eggheads have "overthunk" it and actually think that it is more profitable to develop natural resources thousands of miles away in a foreign and hostile country, than it is to develop the same natural resources in their own backyard.

Why? Because "American" investment in Ukraine guarantees a leg up when they want to rape Ukraine for something else in the future.

We are glad to see that Trump can read the Constitution and that he knows it is a service contract and that keeping our borders defended is part of that contract. How refreshing. That also includes the Northern Border yet Trump just let 20,000 Canadians cross over without permission or paperwork.

Canadians, unlike Mexicans, have the absolute worst reputation for genocides and mass murders of any country or nationality since the United Nations started keeping track. Yet, it's a-okay to let Canadians into this country without a glance? And think the worst of Mexicans and Guatemalans?

Not so far as we are concerned. The contract is to protect and defend our borders. That means control immigration and access. North or South, East or West.

We are glad to see Trump taking up the tariff talks and convincing other countries that the Americans can impose tariffs just as well as the next fella, but we haven't gone soft in the head. We know that tariffs are taxes designed to rig commodity prices and supplies. We know that consumers pay for them.

We also know that a 17% sales tax with exemptions will become a 57% sales tax with no exemptions if the U.S. Congress is allowed any power of taxation related to it. We also know that poor people are better off with no sales taxes of any kind and that sales taxes are inflexible and applied to everyone equally; there is no sliding scale.

The truth is that we don't need resets or foreign Rare Earth Mineral contracts. We just need free trade and common sense, if there is any left on this planet. We certainly don't need Mr. Zelensky, nor do we need the Change-of-Regime CIA apparatus that made him a problem in the first place.

It's all thuggery. It's all criminal. It profits us nothing to have the most efficient, skillful, and deadly thugs in the world. 007 be damned and the fifty-two men presently pretending to be Ian Fleming, too. All they do is come home and terrorize Mom and Pop.

The Brits over the past three centuries have promoted and nurtured a culture of criminal fraud and misrepresentation, they have corrupted their own court system and as many other courts systems as possible. They have proliferated a vast transnational Bureaucratic State System that would have made Louis the Fourteenth blush and they have illegally imposed it on Americans, Canadians, Aussies, and most of the rest of the world without being detected until now.

Those they couldn't blackmail, they paid off; those they couldn't blackmail or pay off, they killed. Like Princess Diana. Like Virginia Guiffre. Or they used their corrupt and vicious court system to imprison their victims-- like Demetrius Julius Shiva, the Colorado Nine, and countless others who harmed nobody and did nothing unlawful, yet were thrown in "Maximum Security" facilities with ax murderers and armed robbers and serial rapists.

The same Bum's Rush would have been given to Edward Snowden, if he hadn't had enough sense to flee to Russia. We've all seen what happened to Julian Assange.

For each name and face we know, there are thousands of others like them, people killed, abused, and oppressed by their own public employees, and, at least seemingly, their own government.

We now know that it wasn't their own government doing these things.

We now know that it was all being done to us by lawless privately owned and operated commercial and municipal corporations in the business of providing governmental services under contract ---- contracts that the Perpetrators liberally ignored and violated.

These atrocities against us and against our government by these traitorous and mismanaged public employees are well-marked in our recent histories. They have names, places, and dates, like Ruby Ridge and Waco. These gangs of thieves have even assassinated their own "Presidents" and leaders --- JFK, RFK, MLK.

Even Ronald Reagan, an actor from Hollywood drafted to play the Presidential role, wasn't safe.

Like it or not, all this violence, all these lies and omissions, all the trampling of freedom, the domestic internments, the coercive monopolies, have all taken place during the tenure of the quasi-military government. Things went south in 1863 with the very first "Executive Order" creating the Lieber Code (Hague Conventions) and the existential problem created at that time still remains.

Even with our American Government returned and in Session, the quasi-military drama has continued on.

Most Americans have no idea what the 2020 riots were all about.

The fact that Donald Trump removed "Equal Rights Privileges" with the stroke of a pen was lost in the smokescreen surrounding George Soros. The same Americans didn't hear that Trump "suspended" the Constitutions --- for Federal Employees and dependents, including military employees and dependents. Still other truly clueless wonders are trying to invoke the right of habeas corpus, which has been suspended since the days of Abraham Lincoln.

In the midst of this clamor and confusion, under the conditions of this "official" martial law, we have "the military" spinning more narratives and imposing more conditions on our people, omitting crucial information, creating undisclosed contracts, continuing the unlawful and illegal practice of registering American babies and coercing more registrations in order for Americans to receive "trust funds" issued to the estates of still more Americans misrepresented as British Territorial U.S. Citizens.

The whole prospect of their "150 Trillion Dollar giveaway" is illegal, unlawful, undisclosed, evil, and predatory, still seeking to defraud and entrap the American people for the benefit and the unjust enrichment of British and Continental European interests--- which are still seeking a basis for False Claims in Commerce and still seeking to continue an inappropriate colonial relationship with our country and ourselves.

We repeat --- all three bogus public trusts issued in the names of Americans must be released: the American infant decedent estate trusts, the British Territorial seaman's trusts, and the Municipal Roman Inferior Cestui Que Vie ESTATE trusts. All three must go, so that only the American Lawful Person remains.

The fraudulent "State" Trusts being operated by the members of the Bar, have to be returned to the ownership of the people without excuses and undisclosed middlemen. It all has to come home and to the actual people it belongs to.

We denounce QFS and the so-called Reset for what it is --- another Big Lie and another Big Fraud Scheme, salted down with more False and Undisclosed Registrations, and more entrapment protocols, as if we were so many deer to be lured to salt licks. The "military" to the extent that it is a military, should be ashamed. Ashamed of their performance ever since 1863. Ashamed of what they are still trying to pull off today, against the interests of the people who have filled their ranks and their mess kits for 162 years.

As for Donald Trump --- honesty is the best policy.
