

A Quick ReCap

By Anna Von Reitz

In 1933 the vermin in the British Territorial United States Congress amended The Trading With the Enemy Act to include average Americans as "aliens" (which we are, thank God, with respect to their illegal and immoral corporate venture) and as possible "enemies". This gave them an excuse to seize all our assets and roll everything into trusts under The Office of the Alien Property Custodian. The Territorial States of States "took title" to us and our lands and kept the equitable title to benefit themselves, and they split the takings with the Municipal United States organization run by the Roman Catholic Church by giving them the legal title to everything. And what did we get out of this cozy arrangement?

The bill.

The schemers abused their position of trust to run up huge debts against our assets, then claimed bankruptcy protection for themselves and left us holding the bag.

They did this in 1907 and in 1933 and have tried to pull it again in 2015 and 2017.

Now the Rothschilds are trying to boot up two new corporate government structures, one British doing business as THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, LLC chartered in Scotland and one French doing business as The Republic of the United States of America (Inc.) and we are having none of it.

Non-assumpsit. No contract.

And, by the way, all those "Delegated Powers" of ours that they were assuming were there for their new corporations to exercise in our behalf?

The Delegated Powers returned to us by Operation of Law, and we accepted them back. Formally. On the record.

So there is where it stands. Checkmated.

We, the Americans, are owed back all our assets free and clear of debt and encumbrance. We are also owed all the back rent, leases, mortgage escrows, utility payments, labor contracts, life force value annuities, and other assets that are rightfully ours.

We are the Priority Creditors and we are presenting ourselves as the Naked Owners. The banks are only middlemen with little or no bargaining position of their own.
