

The Tenth Leper.... A Call to Conscience

By Anna Von Reitz

So it begins...

It was not my intention that America: Some Assembly Required be published on the web. Within hours of releasing a few copies to trusted friends of the cause, the word came back--- "OMG! This has to go viral! Now!!!"

So the decision was taken, early this morning, in the predawn hours, to release the text and pray to God....

Already, Nesara News has released a "doctored" version of it, which you can identify because it misspells my name on the title page. Their version has my name as "Reizinger"----- it's "Riezinger". It is spelled the opposite of the more common name for a reason.

Another way you can tell the Nesara version apart from mine is that my address always is properly sent "in care of" a Post Office Box. I am not a Post Office Box, thank you, very much.

There are numerous other changes throughout the text, as someone edited it without my permission and released it without my permission.

So let's be clear---- the "official" version is available on my website: www.annavonreitz.com, and if you have a doctored version, I suggest you dump it and get the right one ASAP.

This is only the beginning of what I fear will be a major attack and attempted piracy of my work online, so be forewarned and forearmed. There are a lot of people who won't want you to know the truth, and if they can fool you by giving you a doctored copy of something under my name, they will.

Apparently there are old Cabal agents wandering around trying to make use of my name, too. Just because someone comes to you in my name or gives you something written that appears to be my work---- take care. Write to me. Call me. Ask.

The same charlatans that created this giant sting against our lawful government will be out in full force trying to steal in my name, trying to discredit me, trying to doctor my words, trying to ride on my coat-tails and associate themselves with me, but be forewarned.

What these people always do, is pretend to be their enemy. Always.

Throughout the Gospels there are accounts of Jesus healing whole groups of people, and although they all received the same gift of health and healing, only a few returned to thank him in each group, usually about one in ten was reported as coming back.

If you are thankful for the information you have received, then be sure to pass on ONLY the actual text of America: Some Assembly Required as I wrote it, warts and all.

And if you want to continue to benefit from the work that I and the members of The Living Law Firm have done and are doing, then lend a hand and make a donation. America: Some Assembly Required is a small book, but it took two and a half weeks of my life to condense forty-plus years of study into sound-bites, and it took similar chunks out of other's lives as well to deliver this little book into your hands. Men and women have suffered and died to bring this book to you, true Americans, who brought forward their bits and pieces so that it could all be put together at last.

We could have done as so many others have done before. We could have chickened out and saved our knowledge for ourselves and just our families and our chosen friends. We could have left you out and never told you the truth about what has happened to this country and why.

We could have. We didn't. As always, we gave it away, so that it could go viral, so that it could be read by as many people as possible, as quickly as possible.

How much is this little book worth? If you are an American, the knowledge is beyond diamonds and pearls. If you aspire to freedom, if you care about this country--- it is the key to unlocking the chains that bind you, the key to recognizing who is responsible for the malaise that has held our country in thrall for six generations.

If you live elsewhere in the world, it is the key to understanding what has been done to you and your countries, too, for the same masterminds implemented this same fraud scheme on a worldwide basis--- stealing your identity, voiding your constitutions by deceit, misdirecting your own employees to enslave you, taking title to your land, impersonating you, and on and on.

It wasn't "America" doing all these bad things all around the world.

It was Britain and the European hegemony left over from the Holy Roman Empire, working together in collusion and Breach of Trust, secretly controlling and siphoning off the wealth and manpower of this country and using us to enrich themselves and be their gun fodder in endless wars for profit.

So if you want to blame someone for what has gone on here, blame us for being confused and misled by charlatans operating in Breach of Trust, but blame them for being evil and self-serving and the cause of it all.

And now, I want to stuff something down the throats of all those whining and crying about my "support" for Trump: he's the first President since JFK that wasn't bought off. He's the first real American to hold the office of President since 1963. He's the first competent businessman to be elected to the one Office in this country that is supposed to be about business, first, last, and always----in my lifetime.

Now that you have read America: Some Assembly Required and have the Big Picture firmly in mind, take ten minutes and watch this campaign speech that you probably never heard before and maybe didn't really think about, either, if you did hear it.

President Trump clearly saw the basics of the problem long before I explained the history of it to him. And now that he has the history, he's the one American in place, able and ready, to put an end to 150 years of European lies and deceit, betrayal by the Church and infamous betrayal and Breach of Trust by the British Monarch who would now be speaking German without us.

Watch and see why I support Donald J. Trump: <https://youtu.be/G2qIXXafxCQ>

And if you support the gargantuan efforts of unsung heroes laboring all over this country to nail this down, here's my laundry list this week:

1. The single wife of a patriot in jail, sick, losing her home, her husband under false arrest by these cretins, her light bill hasn't been paid. His research has put the guilty

American Bar Association under worldwide lien for $279 trillion dollars. They are trying to kill him as we speak, just as they tried their best to do away with the Bundys and others who had guts enough to speak up.

2. The wife and two small children of a man similarly under false arrest, a researcher who cracked the code and history of the Postal Districts and how they are supposed to operate---and don't.

3. The man who is singularly responsible for proving the continuance of our government is sitting in a little cabin so far out in the woods you couldn't find him with a flashlight, counting pennies to send out the letters that are saving your lives. His wife and child are suffering with him.

4. A former Bar Attorney who realized what the rats were doing to this country and who immediately tore up his bar card and came to do what's right, lost his home because of it to the illegal foreclosure mill, can't pay for the basics of his life without help from his children. It's for all of us that he is suffering.

5. A dedicated Paralegal who has devoted her life to informing the Provost Marshals of their liability and charge to guard the American People and deliver their exemptions and guarantee that The Law of Peace is what the American People receive----- her car broke down and she can't do her mission without a $2000 repair.

6. The man who has researched the worst-of-the-worst-of-the-worst mechanized money laundering machine that has been delivering the value of your lives and your labor to the Pope and the Queen and the cretins who have faithlessly operated your government---- it's because of him that we can prove where the money went----take your hats off! He is struggling to pay a medical bill and there's no help available for him, his wife, his daughter--- only what I can send.

And yes, I COULD go on. Every day, as the Paymaster for this operation, I have to make HARD choices about where the pennies and nickles go. Every day I have to look at and hear the suffering of good people, the groaning of their voices under the scourge of this injustice---- and continue to make those hard choices. Should a child go without Christmas because a widow needs heat in her house?

What would you do?

It's time for the actual enemies of this country and its people to be held to account, and for the "mistaken identity" and Breach of Trust to end, right now.

If Mr. Trump is a "cowboy" --- then so am I.

If Cliven Bundy is a "cowboy" ---- then so am I.

I ride for the brand, and I know what brand it is---- which is a good deal more than a lot of brainless yuppies in L.A. and NYC and the entire National Press Club seem to know.

So--- it's up to all of you.

The people who made America: Some Assembly Required both living and dead need your help now. They need you to wake up. They need you to take action. They need you to spread the correct word. They need you to tackle the Bar Associations. They need you to help President Trump carry through on his campaign promises. And yes, some of them need your help to pay the light bill.

Send emergency donations to: Anna Maria Riezinger, c/o Post Office Box 520994, Big Lake, Alaska 99652 or send via PayPal to: avannavon@gmail.com --- and I will do my best to spread whatever butter there is to those who have done the most and those who are in most desperate straits.
