

What Has Been Done For You

By Anna Von Reitz

First-- to all my friends worldwide who are not Christian-- bear with me. I promise that this has a message for you, too, but for reasons that are or will become obvious, I am obliged to speak to and within the confines of Christian history for a moment.

In 1302, Pope Boniface established the world's first and largest Express Trust called the "Unam Sanctam" Trust. In this document he claimed that his office was that of Trustee for the whole earth and everything on it. That is, he claimed to own the air, the birds within in, the sea and all its creatures, and the earth, too, together with all the land animals and people and buildings on it.

He claimed to own it all and to be Christ's Trustee.

And the Roman Catholic Church set out to organize the entire world accordingly, and over the next few centuries, created three jurisdictions: air, land, and sea.

The air jurisdiction-- beside containing birds --- contains spirits and demons, angels, electric currents, sound waves and more---- is global in nature. That province the Church reserved for itself. Sins occur in the jurisdiction of the air.

The sea jurisdiction was farmed off to the British Monarch. Debts occur in the jurisdiction of the sea.

The land jurisdiction was farmed off to the Spanish Monarch. Losses occur in the jurisdiction of the land.

And that, with more or less success, has been the "way of the world" for the last seven centuries.

But wait a minute..... if the Pope in his office is Trustee of the Spirit Realm and in his office as Roman Pontiff the Trustee of the Material Realm.....why aren't all these bills being paid?

Obviously, Satan has been maintaining a stronghold somewhere.

Ah.

Even though Jesus and Satan played for keeps, it wasn't the risen Christ that paid for the sins (debts) of the world. It was a very real, very material man. A carpenter from Galilee. And he is not here in the flesh to demand payment.

So, the theory was--- until He came back in the flesh it was business as usual. Satan just conveniently kept the Keys to the Kingdom of God and operated through the office of the Roman Pontiff, while the Pope held the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Sweet.

However, that wasn't the deal. If Jesus had made a single misstep on his way to Golgotha, Satan's victory would have been assured. He would have reigned forever on Earth, until he destroyed it.

But Jesus carried through on His part of the bargain, paid the price, once and forever and for the whole world---- both goats and sheep, both tares and wheat, His own Followers and the Hindus of India and the Buddhists of Tibet and everyone else, everywhere, for all time. And--this is important--- all jurisdictions.

He absorbed all sins, all debts, all losses.

The Kingdom of Heaven knows no sin, no debt, no loss, no scarcity, no illness, but the Kingdom of God does.

These facts have been plainly stated in the scriptures for centuries and established in the doctrine of the Roman Catholic Church along with the Unam Sanctam Trust and the claim of the Popes to be the Trustees of Christ on Earth--- His Vicar.

Fine.

So it was time for someone, a Beneficiary acting as Jesus' Fiduciary Deputy in the flesh, to pull the plug.

Please see the attached Payment Bond. I presented it to Cardinal Mamberti, the head of the Vatican Chancery Court, as of January 6, 2017.

You will all note from reading the attached Original Copy of the Payment Bond, that it was delivered on the Day of the Three Kings, when the princes of the Earth pay homage to their Redeemer. You will notice that the Payment Bond lasts for 1,000 years during which the peace of the Kingdom of Heaven and its abundance is to reign and the swords are to be beaten into plowshares. You will note that it is for redemption of the Kingdom of God, where all the sins and debts and losses are stored up. You will note that it is for all NAMES or Names of any kind. You will note that it puts an end to the Doctrine of Scarcity, and that it proclaims that the Law of Heaven is in force on Earth: to keep the peace, to love each other, and to do no harm. And there is no other law we are bound to.

This has been done for each and every one of you regardless of your belief or disbelief, your faith or lack thereof. You have been dearly bought and are now redeemed, set free of sin, debt, and loss. The cruelty of Satan's Rule is ended. A new life lies before you.

In embracing this new life, leave behind the ideas of differences and tribes.

Dear children, note---- we are all unique. Each one of us is utterly different from all else that is created. Protect and care for each one, for each one is sacred. Let all law and caretaking be focused on just each one, not on any group identity.

As long as we define ourselves as members of groups --tribes, nations, etc., we condemn ourselves to a world in which bigger nations will always subjugate smaller nations and larger gangs will punish smaller gangs. Let this thinking go. Let all tribalism diminish until it is only a dim memory.

In the end, there is only each one of you, utterly precious, utterly unique--- and All That Is, that you are part of.

My name "Anna Maria" means the "Grace of Mary", who, when the angel came to her, said--- "Let it be done to me according to your word." These words have echoed through the centuries in the hearts and minds and experiences of all those who have given themselves to the Lord of Heaven.

So let it be and let it begin.
