

Mr. Trump, What's Wrong With This Picture?

By Anna Von Reitz

The Department of Justice works for you as an "Agency" --- it's a subcontractor under your own thumb and forefinger --- unless of course, the foreign "U.S. Trustees" named by the Secondary Creditors are interfering in your Administration?

Otherwise, why are you finding it so hard to properly direct the "Department of Justice" to do its actual job?

Aside from the meddling of bankruptcy trustees, there seems to be no plausible explanation for how and why Department of Justice personnel are so far off course. If this were a golf course and they were the ball, they'd be in a swamp behind the local fire station.

So here is today's mystery. These guys who are supposed to be helping you in your executive duty to prevent, detect, suppress, and punish actual crimes, are wasting millions upon millions of dollars prosecuting you --- their Boss and the man they are directly tasked to assist.

How is that even possible?

I'd have an Attitude Adjustment Meeting with Jeff Sessions and tell him what his job is. I would give him a week to straighten this entire situation out or he'd be down the road with no return bus fare.

And we'd have a new U.S. Attorney General.

One that didn't have any flimsy excuse to take a powder and recuse himself, one that didn't have any "Baggage" from years in Congress, who would have no problem shutting down the ridiculous Mueller witch hunt, someone with some practical common sense and grit....

How about Brett Kavanaugh? Withdraw his Supreme Court nomination and appoint him the new U.S. Attorney General.

Get rid of Sessions.

We have said it privately and now we are saying it in public. Jeff Sessions has personal liabilities and is useless as an Attorney General.

He provides no competent leadership for the DOJ, which is why they are wasting our time and money and contributing to the Circus that Washington, DC has become -- instead of assisting you.

He is supposed to work for you and the rest are supposed to work for him, but if there is nobody competent at the helm and in control of things you know yourself from your own experience that things just go to Hell.

Please put an end to the Circus. Get rid of Sessions. Appoint Kavanaugh. Kill two birds with one stone.

And watch the roaches run....
