

The "Federal Reserve" is Only The Whipping Boy

By Anna Von Reitz

Back in the days of overt slavery there was a peculiar practice called the "whipping boy". When the Master of the Plantation did something bad, something worthy of whipping, he simply called his "whipping boy" and the unfortunate slave took the beating that the Master deserved.

This caused righteous indignation on the part of the slave and did nothing to improve the behavior or moral character of the "Master".

It is the same with the Federal Reserve. They were de-fanged and mastered long ago and only exist as a repository bank and store front for the Exchange Stabilization Fund (ESF) not to be confused with the Economic Security Fund --- also "ESF".

And what is the Exchange Stabilization Fund?

It is essentially a mindlessly large hedge fund, designed for manipulation of the currency markets of the entire world.

Money in all its forms is a commodity.

So the Exchange Stabilization Fund is just a giant commodity market rigging scheme, dictating the value and availability of national currencies, through its ability to buy and hold these currencies.

It's illegal as hell.

It should have been busted long, long ago.

Every country in the world should be stomping on the "Congress" and all those responsible for this, without exception.

And instead of whipping and beating the Federal Reserve, why not whip and beat the Exchange Stabilization Fund? Go to the source of the problem and by-pass the store front. It would be better for the morality of the whole world to -- once and for all -- identify the actual source of the problem.

And there it is: the Exchange Stabilization Fund.

Now you have a name and a diagnosis. The next part of the progression is treatment.

Call your Presidents, your Congressmen, your various Poobahs and Pundits.

Shake the walls and rattle the cages.

Let the perpetrators in Whitehall know that their schemes and deliberations are known.

Let the flunkies in the Philippines drafted as the Arbiters of this Grand Farce and Great Fraud take Fair Notice from the rest of the world.

Let Donald Trump have lots of sunshine pumped up his skirt, and Pope Francis, too.

Let the "UN" and "NEW YORK" and all the old Nazis get a thrill as they realize that everything--- absolutely everything--- isn't "secret" after all.

See this article and over 600 others on Anna's website here:www.annavonreitz.com
To support this work look for the PayPal button on this website.